Can't Hurt Head of Any Candidate Declares Rogers

(Special To The News)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, June 7.—Wheel broke when she came down and turned over and lit on her back—the first candidate to land on his head. And being a candidate it didn't hurt the head.

Grabbed another plane and on into Salt Lake, where these Republicans meet.

Anyhow, if I had landed 20 feet further, would have hit in Boulder Dam.

On to Kansas to draft Coolidge.

Yours,

WILL.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Commissioners of Lawrence county have been given a state permit for construction of a new bridge across the Neshannock creek at East Brook station. It will replace the structure which was recently condemned for use.

New Castle's army of school children is at large today for the summer vacation. Last sessions of the school term were conducted on Wednesday. A summer school term will start soon for some of the pupils who desire to make up back work or to progress during the summer.

Pa Newc has received a note that The News is quoted again in Topics of The Day, a movie reel that is circulated in three thousand theatres throughout the nation.

Action to be taken by the city health officer Dr. W. L. Steen in requiring every person desiring to establish an eating place in the city to pass a standard examination and secure a license is a move that will meet with general approbation here. Too much care cannot be exercised in connection with operation of restaurants and eating places.

New Castle boys should not forget to avail themselves of the chance to secure free instruction in the art of swimming, under the arrangement made by the New Castle Y. M. C. A. Every boy should know how to swim and to handle himself in the water.

How do you like the weather? One of the men with whom Pa Newc occassionally comes down town on the street car with is the father of this one: "Well, it can't be long now. All the water that was up there will be down here."

Another complaint has been lodged against the infant panhandlers who work the main streets after 6 o'clock at night. Usually their hands are filled with papers and their voices are filled with pathos. But says a friend of Pa Newc after the same youngster has hit one four times in the same week his appeal suddenly loses something.

Today is the first dairy field day at Volant. Many weeks of planning will come to fruitition. On the list of speakers will be Dr. C. G. Jordan state secretary of agriculture. And the judging will be done by a man who is second to none in the state. E. B. Fitts of the Pennsylvania State college.

A queer philosophy of life has been evolved by one of the lawyers of New Castle. "Do you know" he says, "life is just a series of doing what you want to do or not doing what you want to do. But mostly it is the 'not doing.' That is the trouble."

Ten or a dozen girls were noted peering out of a second floor window of the First National bank shortly before noon. Investigation showed the cause of the commotion—a bridal party had stopped in the street and the members were entering a photographer's office.

Mabel Boll Hopes To Be First Woman To Hop Atlantic

First Leg Of Flight Started; Plane Goes To Old Orchard, Me.

ROME IS LIKELY TO BE FLIGHT GOAL

"Queen Of Diamonds" Hopes To Beat Miss Earhart Across Atlantic

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

CURTISS FIELD, N. Y., June 7.—The trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia, in which Mabel Boll, "queen of diamonds", and two male companions started out early today on the first leg of a proposed flight to Europe, returned to the field here shortly after noon.

It was stated that unfavorable weather along the route to Old Orchard, Me., the first stop on the proposed flight, had caused the return.

ROOSEVELT FIELD, N. Y., June 7.—The Columbia, sturdy monoplane which carried Clarence Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine from here to Germany, hopped off from here at 6:15 a. m. today for Old Orchard, Me., on the first leg of its second flight across the North Atlantic.

The plane carried Miss Mabel Boll, Oliver Le Boutillier of Montclair, N. J., her pilot, and Captain Arthur Argles, formerly of Omaha, Neb., her navigator.

To Head for Rome

Levine, who seemed to be directing the flight, caused a sensation just before the start by announcing that the fliers would head for Rome after leaving Old Orchard. He said it was planned to have the ship follow the ship lane route, veering for the Grand Banks and skirting the southern tip of Ireland, crossing England, France and the Pyrenees Mountains.

The plane has a gasoline capacity of 489 gallons, which is enough for 48 hours of flying. At this rate the craft could easily make Rome or Berlin, unless it encountered storms.

At Old Orchard there is a runway long enough to enable the plane to take off successfully even with a load of more than 450 gallons of gasoline. There the trio will await favorable weather for the trans-Atlantic attempt.

Battle On Farm Relief Looming For Convention

Major Battle Over Republican Platform For 1928 Revolves Around Farm Relief

FARMERS SEEKING FRIENDLY CANDIDATE

Party Issues Rather Well Settled With Exception Of McNary-Haugen Issue

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

KANSAS CITY, June 7.—The first rumbles of a major battle over the Republican platform for the 1928 campaign were heard today as spokesman for the agrarian midwest launched a drive for a McNary-Haugen farm relief plank.

Outriders of the farm relief army, which will assemble here from every agricultural state, were outspoken in demanding a plank pledging the Republican party to the enactment of farm relief legislation, containing the equalization fee feature which President Coolidge vetoed in no uncertain terms. The drive, popular though it may be in the midwest, appears doomed to defeat.

Aside from this farm relief fight,

Southern Cross Aviators Unable To Get Away Last Night As Planned

NOW ALL IS READY FOR LAST HAZARD

Expect To Complete First California-To-Australia Flight Yet This Week

(International News Service)

SUVA, Fiji Islands, June 8.—Friday)—Having been delayed by difficulties in refuelling, the Australian bound monoplane Southern Cross probably will hop off for Brisbane sometime before noon today.

The huge tri-motored Fokker is poised on Naselai beach, 18 miles from here, awaiting an opportune moment for starting the 1700-mile jump over open waters.

A stiff wind was blowing from the east as the final drums of petrol were emptied into the fuel tanks.

Unfavorable Conditions.

The four men of the crew—Capt. Charles Kingsford-Smith, C. T. P. Ulm, Harry Lyon and James Warner—had hoped to get away last night, but the refuelling proceeded slowly and winds were unfavorable.

They flew their giant steel bird from the improvised airport at Albert park here to Naselai beach yesterday noon, hoping to be ready for the hop-off when low tide left them a mile straight-away of Clear White beach.

The aviators were unable to land at Naselai on their first take-off from Albert park. They found the tide had not cleared sufficiently to insure a safe landing, so they circled over the city until the beach was finally clear of surf.

They are now all set to go. A word from Commander Kingsford-Smith will set the huge plane booming out over the last great "water hazard" of the expedition's 7800-mile flight from California to Australia.

Seventy-Five Get College Diplomas At Commencement

Honorary Degrees Are Conferred At Westminster Wednesday Afternoon

Young Ladies Make Two Honor Place Addresses Of Day

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, June 7.—Seventy-five seniors were graduated in the 74th commencement of Westminster college held in the auditorium of the local United Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In addition to the A. B. and B. S. degrees conferred upon the students, seven honorary degrees were conferred.

Judge James A. Chambers of New Castle had conferred on him the degree of Doctor of Laws as also did Robert K. Aiken, also of New Castle. Roland C. Deevers of Pittsburgh received the Doctor of Science degree and the following men were awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree: Dr. R. J. Love of Westminster college, Rev. Charles C. Adams of Cairo, Egypt; the Rev. Robert R. Littell of Philadelphia and the Rev. Raymon M. Kistler of Rochester, N. Y.

After the profession of faculty members and candidates for degrees had marched into the auditorium, the invocation was given and Miss Mildred Lawson gave the salutatory address. Miss Lawson gave a survey of four years of college and, though criticising the present plan of academic work, stated that she was happy to have been at Westminster for the last four years.

Commencement Address.

Following an organ number, Dr. Geroge L. Omwake, LL. D., of Ursinus college delivered the commencement address to the graduating class. Taking as his subject "The Tent of Xerxes", Dr. Omwake gave an exceptionally clear picture of Greecian his-

Weather Conditions Affect Plans For Hop-Off; Hope To Leave Today

HUGE PLANE IN FINE CONDITION

Two Hundred Gallons Additional Of Gasoline Will Be Taken Aboard Before Hop

(International News Service)

TREPASSEY, N. F., June 7.—With everything in readiness for their flight to England, Miss Amelia Earhart and Wilmer Stultz expected to get away today in the tri-motored Fokker monoplane Friendship.

Miss Earhart, Stultz and Lou Gordon, the third member of the Friendship's crew, awoke early this morning after a refreshing night's sleep and breakfasted before inspecting the weather charts.

Eager For Venture

All three are eager to start on their venture but they announced that they will not be rushed by Miss Mabel Boll's decision to try to beat them across in the trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia.

The huge Friendship is in perfect condition, Gordon stated. Everything now depends on the weather. Two hundred additional gallons of gasoline will be taken aboard the plane just before the take-off.

Last night the rain stopped here and the wind died down to a whisper. Before dawn the inhabitants crowded about the docks of the harbor where the plane is moored, in order not to miss the hop-off.

Plane Noses Over On Back And Rogers Is Dazed

LAS VEGAS, Nev., June 7.—Will Rogers, cowboy humorist, landed upside down in an air mail plane here Wednesday en route to the Republican national convention, but the jolt did not cool his enthusiasm for air travel.

The plane, piloted by Fred Kelly, did a ground loop when a wheel broke in landing and nosed over on its back. Rogers was a little dazed when he was released from the plane but quickly recovered, and said:

"I just started for the Republican convention at Kansas City but landed on my head at Las Vegas. Serve me right for not going to the Democratic convention instead. I want to make it clear that Pilot Kelly is not to blame for this little accident."

Dr. L. D. Cheney, another passenger, received a slight cut over one eye. Kelly and Rogers were only shaken up.

FOUR YEAR OLD BOY KILLED IN AUTO CRASH

Robert Lintz, aged four years, little son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lintz of near Portersville was almost instantly killed Wednesday evening about seven o'clock when the car in which he was riding with his father was struck by an auto driven by Phillip Sechler, of Butler; at Kradle Corners, at the intersection of the Evans City and Butler highways.

By the force of the impact of the two cars the little boy's head crashed through the windshield cutting his throat from ear to ear, severing his jugular vein. He was rushed to the Butler Memorial hospital but he died soon after being taken there.

It is declared that the Sechler car was going at a high rate of speed and was unable to make the turn at the intersection of the roads. This has always been considered a dangerous corner and a number of accidents have occurred there.

Mr. Lintz was enroute from Butler to his farm near Portersville when the accident happened.

The accident is one of the worst that has happened in the community for some years. The boy was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Lintz and was a general favorite of the neighborhood.

Mr. Sechler is engaged in the monument business at Butler. He was formerly of Prospect, Pa.

Funeral services will take place on Friday afternoon at 1:30 from the home.

PENNSYLVANIA RADIO AMATEUR BELIEVES MESSAGE FROM NOBILE PICKED UP ON HIS RADIO SET

(International News Service)

NORTH WALES, Pa., June 7.—The radio call for assistance signed "Nobile", which Albert Bylers, amateur wireless operator, picked up on a two-tube set here early today is authentic and he believes was direct from Commander Umberto Nobile's Italian polar expedition, Bylers asserted to International News Service today.

Bylers is licensed as radio operator for station 3-ATY. On April 13 last he was the first amateur radio operator in eastern Pennsylvania to intercept messages from the German monoplane Bremen telling of its landing on Greenely island.

Message Received.

The message as Bylers received it at 12:10 a. m. eastern daylight time today, was picked up on 42 meters while he was trying to tune in a station in the Netherlands. It read in full: "CQ——CQ—— Rush assistance Position—84-15-10, north; 15-20-40, east. Very cold and wearied. Nobile"

"I was fooling around with my set at my home during the evening," Bylers explained. "In fact I had been operating the set nearly all evening when I picked up station 8-AYB, which is located near Pittsburgh. They were calling the Netherlands and I decided to listen in for the answer of the Holland station. It was then I heard a faint call——"CQ——CQ", which to radio operators means "everyone listen". I did. Then came the message faintly but clear and distinct. It was 12:10 Philadelphia daylight time when I finished copying the message," Bylers said.

Bylers is employed as a towerman on the Reading railway at the North Wales station here, about 15 miles north of Philadelphia in Montgomery county.

Hoover Forces Are In Control Of Situation, Experts At Convention Say

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

KANSAS CITY, June 7.—Thoroughly aroused and frightened at last, the anti-Hoover allies were engaged today in a belated effort to whip together some kind of an organization capable of stopping the nomination of the Secretary of Commerce here next week.

Lowden men, Watson men, Dawes men, Curtis men, everybody, in fact, who regards the nomination of Hoover with sorrow and foreboding, are participating in the effort. Two meetings of this sort were held last night. More will be held today and tonight, and probably every day and every night between now and balloting time.

Up to today the allies have been such in name and purpose only. All of them have wanted to see the cabinet candidate stopped, but while there has been unity of thought and objective, there has been utterly lacking any unity of effort and command. The situation has been not unlike that prevailing on the western front during the World War when the various allies cheered for each other but lacked the unity of command and effort essential to victory. Ultimately the World War allies found Foch. Perhaps the hard-pressed allies in Kansas City may yet

Nearly 300 Are Graduated At Cathedral Wednesday Evening

ADDRESS IS MADE BY DR. EISENBERG

Salutatorian Is Ill And Her Address Is Read By Another Student

A gray-clad host sat together as a class for the last time Wednesday evening in the Scottish Rite Cathedral. A gray-clad host, young men and young women, nearly three hundred of them, their scholastic gray garb presenting a somber picture as they sat there, looking out at a sea of humanity that billowed and swelled from orchestra pit to dome.

For the gray-clad host it was the Alpha and Omega, the beginning of a new world and the end of the old. Behind them stretched four years of high school work, and back of that their elementary work in the grades. Before them in rather indefinite outline stretched the future. For some the shadows formed themselves into institutions of higher learning, for some the shadows took shape as business houses, factories, offices and what not. But for that brief space

Works His Plane Out Of Tail Spin; Saves Passengers

Air Mail Pilot Makes Sensational Landing At New Brunswick, N. J.

(International News Service)

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 7—In pulling a pacer monoplane out of a tail spin a fraction of a second before it crashed to the ground Dean C. Smith, ranking air mail pilot of the National Air Transport Company, saved the lives of his two passengers, one of them a woman, and emerged himself with a scratch on his nose at Hadley Field Airport here. The plane was completely wrecked.

The injured, now in Muhlenberg hospital, Plainfield, are Mrs. Marion Moyer, of Plainfield, and Frank D. Fillipo, of South Plainfield. The former suffered a fractured arm and leg and the man fractured ribs, according to hospital physicians.

Unruffled by his narrow escape, Smith said he would take the air mail out as usual on his regular route to Chicago.

According to spectators who saw the accident, the plane up about 3,000 feet on a pleasure jaunt, went into a tail spin which Smith managed to work it out of after a 1,000 foot drop. It immediately went into another, from which he swung it just before he hit the earth.

Cabinet Members Desert Capital For Convention

Tomorrow Coolidge Will Meet With Cabinet For Last Time Till After Vacation

ONLY THREE TO REMAIN BEHIND

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—All roads lead to Kansas City for members of the cabinet today.

Only three of the president's official family, Secretaries Kellogg, Hoover and Attorney General Sargent, will miss the Republican convention. Kellogg and Hoover will remain at their desks, while Sargent will leave for New England to speak at a college graduation.

While his managers in Kansas City are pressing his candidacy for the nomination, Secretary Hoover will keep in close touch with the convention by telephone and radio. A special telephone wire has been set up in his office and he has a high-powered radio in his home on which he can follow night proceedings.

Secretary of Treasury Mellon and Secretary of Labor Davis will leave Saturday from Pittsburgh for the convention on the Pennsylvania delegation's special train.

Secretary of War Davis, Secretary of Interior Work, and Secretary of Navy Wilbur will be on hand in advance of the convention opening, while Secretary of Agriculture Jardine, now on an automobile tour inspecting anti-corn borer work in Ohio and Indiana, will arrive in Kansas City only a few hours before the gavel falls.

Tomorrow's regular cabinet meeting will be the last until President Coolidge returns in September from his vacation in Wisconsin.

tempts had been made to get into the air.

The combination of a light wind, which ruffled the waters of Trepassey Harbor, and the heavy fuel load of the plane, prevented the take-off.

The fliers, Miss Amelia Earhart, Wilmer Stultz and Lou Gordon, were keenly disappointed at their failure to get under way immediately. They stated that the weather was propitious for a flight across the Atlantic, if they once could get their heavy trimotored plane into the air, but explained that they needed smooth water for a take-off.

After three attempts, they finally gave up for the time being, and returned disconsolate to their quarters to await the hoped for quieting of the harbor.

She hopes to beat Miss Amelia Earhart across the ocean and thus become the first woman to cross the North Atlantic in an airplane. Miss Earhart, awaiting favorable weather conditions at Trepassey, N. F., with the plane Friendship, is reported to have said that safety will be the keynote of her flight and that she will not make a premature start merely for the sake of trying to beat Miss Boll across the Atlantic.

The possibility loomed this morning, however, that today or tomorrow will see the two planes engaged in a spectacular race across the treacherous expanse which has claimed the lives of so many aerial adventurers.

soldier, Corporal Frank Miller, whose address she does not know, who asked her to marry him eight years ago when the American Army of Occupation was in Coblenz, Germany. Her parents objected to the romance and forbade her to see her lover, and he departed for the United States before she could tell him that she'd wait for him until she was of age.

Leny knows that she has a difficult task before her. To find her lover in this great big country, among millions of people, seems almost impossible. But she has all the blind faith and courage of a woman driven by love.

Expresses Her Faith

"Oh, yes," says Leny. "I'll find him. For eight years I have been thinking and hoping and waiting and never have I doubted that some day I'll find my Frank. You see, it took me so long to save up enough money to start the search for him.

"While in Germany I worked and saved everything, but it was discouraging because the German mark was so unsteady. Often when it seemed that I had very nearly enough to come to America the mark would drop and my money was just so much paper—not enough to buy a pair of stockings. Finally I saved up just enough for my trip to the United States. For two years then I worked in Boston in a private home. Now I have enough money to make my search."

But Leny knows so little about Frank Miller. He was the son of a Lutheran minister and she believes his home town is either in Ohio or in Indiana. She heard of Cleveland being the largest city in Ohio, hence here she chose to begin her investigation. The American Legion and the Travelers' Aid Society promised to aid her. She is staying at the Central Young Women's Christian Association.

Her Simple Story

Leny tells of her romance in a simple way. She met Frank while helping her sister in a restaurant at Coblenz. "He was a fine man and we fell in love," she says. "Frank could speak German and he asked me to marry him many, many times." But her parents objected for some reason and took her back to the farm, far away from Coblentz. "When I was 21 I went to Coblenz but found that he had departed for America," she adds.

"You see I must find him," Leny ponders, wistfully. "Yes, perhaps he is married. I do not wish to disturb his happiness. Often my friends tell me to forget him, that there are other fine men. But I cannot. I must find out; I must know before I am content."

So, said Dr. Omwake, must the present young graduates use the great physical and spiritual wealth of America today.

After Dr. Omwake's brilliant address Miss Muriel Irons delivered the valedictory speech. The thought in Miss Irons' talk was for the graduates to rise above the humdrum existence of "muckrakers" and absolutely get out all of the best that is in each of them.

Dr. Wallace turned to the class of 1928 and after calling them to stand by name, he handed to each the academic and scientific diplomas of the institution. Rev. Irvine's Address

Rev. Irvine in the convention sermon used the convention motto "I am the Way, the Truth and the Light". He said that Christ in making these claims was the greatest challenge ever made. And that it was taken seriously at that time and after thousands of years even now is taken seriously is a great tribute to the Christ and evidence of evidence of the integrity of he who uttered this great verse.

Christianity, said Dr. Irvine, is devotion an allegiance to the person of Christ. He said it was not it is not devotion and allegiance to a book or the church, no matter how commendable that may be but to a person and the hope of the world lies in the way Christians exhibit the Christian spirit in their relations to God and their fellowmen. He said preachers and Sabbath school teachers may impart mere facts but unless they get their schollars to catch the vision of Christ they have failed.

Dr. Fisher Speaks

Dr. Fisher in naming the characteristics of a leader said a leader must see something, feel something, be something and do something but the most important essential of a leader is to get others to see, feel, be and do things. First he must see with eyes that interpret and get the meaning, see sense of values and to think in terms of service. Then he must feel what he sees to such an extent that he will be what he professes to be and will do what he is expected to do and then be able to get other to see, feel, be and do things also.

Rev. Edward H. Bonsall, Pennsylvania State Sabbath School Assistant Young People's superintendent, spoke in asking for all those interested in Sabbath school work to subscribe for and read the Pennsylvania Herald, the official organ of the State Sabbath School association.

The favorite hymn used in the convention was "The Way, the Truth, the Life" which was written by the great song writer Ackley and voiced the theme of the convention in a fine way.

The convention will conclude this evening with the Christian Fellowship banquet at 6:30 Daylight Savings time followed by the installation of new officers and the popular address of Rev. Frederick B. McAllister, pastor of the First Baptist church, Royal Oak, Michigan who will speak on the subject "A Harp in Hock".

there appeared no other clouds on the platform horizon. Party leaders, delegates and even the farm representatives were agreed that the platform should contain laudatory reference to Coolidge policies and pledges to continue them through another four years. All were in accord upon other subjects, with particular stress laid upon the Republican brands of national prosperity and governmental economy.

Dissension Develops.

The farm relief plank however developed dissension among party leaders and delegates. Both sides threatened to carry their fight to the floor of the convention, if defeated in the committee on resolutions, which drafts the platform. In the end, it appeared, the convention itself will decide whether the Republican platform shall call for another McNary-Haugen bill or support the president by pledging the party merely to "adequate farm relief legislation."

Upon such an issue, there seemed little doubt but that the farmers would go down to defeat. The followers of Herbert Hoover, by far the largest single group in the convention, and the followers of President Coolidge, by no means a small group, were certain to oppose the plank demanded by the farm leaders. Together, these two groups dominate the convention.

In the face of such odds, the farm drive will go right ahead. Its leaders may have in mind a strategical move by which they will lose the fight for their pet plank but compromise by securing the nomination of a candidate friendly to their desired legislation. Such a decision by the convention would uphold President Coolidge yet meet the wishes of the farm element.

Senator James E. Watson, Indiana's favorite son candidate for the Republican nomination, undoubtedly will lead the fight for a "McNary-Haugen plank".

On the other hand former Senator Richard P. Ernst, of Ky., a Hoover man was outspoken in denouncing the farm proposal for such a plank.

Whereas storm clouds loomed over the farm plank, the rest of the platform seemed likely to be agreed upon even before the convention assembles. Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, who will be chairman of the platform committee, already has begun to draft the prosperity, financial and tariff planks. He will "point with pride" to the national debt reduction, to economy in government and to tax reduction. Aside from the farm plank, these will be the "big three" issues upon which the Republican party rides to its fate in November, so far as the platform is concerned.

Seven-tenths of life's unpleasantness can be traced to money matters, and the other three-tenths to things that hurt the ego.

Her Health Came Back Soon After She Got Konjola

New Medicine Ended Years Of Kidney and Liver Troubles; States This Lady

MRS. LAURA L. FULTON
Seavy Photo

Many of the well known residents of New Castle and vicinity are telling how this remarkable medicine, Konjola, is delivering them from their health troubles. The Konjola Man, who is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., this city, is explaining this compound to over a hundred people throughout each day, and at the same time, many already benefited are giving their indorsement of this medicine.

One of the latest statements came from Mrs. Laura L. Fulton, 110½ North Liberty St., this city.

"This is the first time in my life to ever praise a medicine to the public", said Mrs. Fulton, "and I want to indorse Konjola because it completely restored my health after everything else failed.

"I was suffering every day with kidney trouble. Nothing that I ever took or did for that ailment, would do me the least bit good. As the days passed my condition grew all the worse. My lower limbs would swell up to almost twice their size and sometimes I could hardly get around the house. There seemed to be a constant pain across the small of my back. At night I would have to rise several times and this broke up my rest so that I was always tired and worn-out. Because of sluggish liver, my entire body was broken out with a rash. This caused me so much suffering that I often thought I would go wild. All during the day I had splitting headaches that felt as if a thousand needles were sticking in my head. I always felt tired and draggy—just like I was only half-living.

"In this condition I went to the Konjola Man and found out about this medicine. I was merely told that it had helped others in my condition and that it most likely would help me. I have only taken two bottles but I feel as if I never had a sick day in my life. Konjola regulated and strengthened my kidneys so that my limbs never swell. The awful pains in my back have never returned since I started taking this medicine and I enjoy sound and all night sleep. My liver is functioning the way it should and the rash has cleared up, in fact, my complexion is better now than it has been for a long time. The medicine has helped me so much to gain new and glorious health and that is my reason for indorsing it".

The Konjola Man is at the Love and Megown drug store, 204 East Washington St., New Castle, where he is daily meeting the public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy.

MEDALS FOR PUBLIC SERVANTS

THERE is before the government in Washington a plan to establish an award similar to the congressional medal of honor and distinguished service cross, to be presented to federal employes who through courageous or self-sacrificing service have signally benefited mankind.

In the government service there are many entitled to public recognition and gratitude. Scientists in the service have invented processes and devices by which the government saves millions of dollars yearly. There are research workers whose experimentation has led to the development of entirely new industries. There are members of the public health service whose activity has resulted in eradication of dread diseases. There are, in short, many whose services have been valuable beyond calculation in money.

Recognition of distinguished service for the government would be not only a mark of grateful appreciation, but would inspire other public servants to do great work.

Government experts whose research has resulted in important discoveries do not fare as well as those engaged in similar activity privately or in industry. The latter receive greater financial reward. The government worker turns over his inventions and discoveries to the public, and devotes his life to his task on a meager and inadequate salary.

Better than a medal would be an award carrying with it an annuity. Practical expression of appreciation gets up the best results. Doubtlessly there are too many federal jobholders and some who do not earn their salaries, small as they are, but that should not deny the valuable employe his deserved reward and recognition.

A VOTING VICE PRESIDENT

VICE PRESIDENT DAWES twice attracted attention to himself in the closing days of the session by casting his vote to break a tie in the senate. It was the first time he had played such a role in all the months he has been in office. Three years ago when a tie resulted in his absence on the confirmation of Charles Beecher Warren as attorney general, he hurried from his hotel to the capitol to swing the issue but arrived too late.

The present incidents are another illustration of what may be described as the decadence of the vice presidency and of how it has changed since the constitution was put into effect. It was the evident intent of the Founding Fathers that the vice president should be a real figure in the governmental scheme, but the tendency of late years has been to make him more and more of a nonentity. He continues to preside over the senate, to attend state dinners and other formal functions and sometimes represents the president on special occasions when the latter is unable to attend. But otherwise he has become little more than a political spare part.

What has happened is another illustration of political evolution. So far as the constitution is concerned, the office and duties of the vice president are identical with what they were almost from the outset. But practice and circumstances have made of him a lesser figure than formerly. There is no valid reason why the vice presidency should not be regarded still as a high office, nor why it should not be looked upon as a place of preferment in its own right as well as the presidency itself. But that such is not the case is shown by the fact that men have virtually to be drafted as candidates for the office by contrast with the presidency. If this were not so, the action of Mr. Dawes in exercising his constitutional prerogative would have attracted little or no attention.

ESSENTIAL WEAKNESS OF COMMUNISM

THE latest news from Russia is not encouraging. The shortage of crops, threatens the welfare of the industrial workers. A bad harvest this year will increase the difficulty. The situation is the more alarming in that the peasants persist in keeping great stores of grain for their own use—a sort of passive resistance which even the Soviet tyranny finds it difficult to overcome. This is not the first time that this complicated problem has had to be faced.

Russia is by nature a great grain-growing country. A large volume of exports is essential to her prosperity. The Bolshevist bureaucrats have not been able to keep this volume up. The present idea of Stalin seems to be that he can meet the evil by radical changes in the government service. But this is exceedingly dubious. The real trouble with Russia lies in the communistic scheme of life there. A nation that has no capitalists cannot expect to prosper. Even the Soviet has recognized this fact by half-hearted efforts to reconcile capitalism with communism.

THE HONESTY OF UNCLE SAM

THE government is an honest advertiser. In giving a list of lands in some parts of the West now open for settlement, the department of the interior frankly says that they are little agricultural value and that "the prospective settler should convince himself that the land will be productive before incurring any great expense." No glowing prospects of dubious possibilities is put out to fool him.

It does not appear, however, that all these tracts are well nigh worthless. One in Colorado of more than 20,000 acres is described as adapted for potatoes and wheat. It is dry, but well timbered, and water can be got by digging down twenty-five feet or more. But the nearest railways station is forty miles away. The potatoes and wheat would have to be carried a good distance to market.

Uncle Sam may be no great shakes as a promoter, but would-be buyers evidently can have confidence in his word.

What the world needs is a self-washing dish.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonght 7:28. Sun rises tomorrow 4:28.

There are some things that tongues can't tell—but troubles aren't one of 'em.

Because of the great increase in the quantity of diamonds, likker and opium being smuggled into this country from Canada, and of silk, raw alcohol and cigarettes being smuggled from this country into Canada, a move is on foot to put a stop to this sort of deviltry. Well Canada is getting back a part of what she is sending us anyhow—the cigs for instance.

If we did pose as a saint we would be one for sure.

WE'RE MORE THAN PLEASED TO HELP

Mr. Fred Rentz,
Dear Fred:

Every high school and college is turning out an army of graduates just now and most all of the boys at least want a white collar job. There are not enough of that kind of jobs by a whole lot and the answer is you will have to do something else or loaf.

So far we have not heard of any bandits being after the air mail. Nothing can ever escape a bandit.

When it did finally rain after a long dry spell this spring we heard a chap complain that it was a cold rain.

BOTTLED LIGHT

An old countryman, who had been to the city for the first time on business, returned in a bad temper.

"At that hotel," he complained, "they kept the light in my bedroom burning all night. I couldn't get a wink of sleep."

"Why didn't you blow it out?" asked his wife.

"Blow it out?" said the old man. "I couldn't. It was in a bottle!"

Long hair must be coming back, as we notice quite a lot of hair pins lying around sort of careless like. Mind the trouble those hairpins used to get the boys into when they were found in the buggies and early automobiles by the ladies most interested in the owners of the buggies and cars?

The average door bell never does much ringing until you try to take a bath. And some phones are the same.

The word has been sent out that the Pennsylvania delegation to the Republican National Convention at Kansas City will be watched closely. They must have heard of some of the elections around these parts. Anyhow we are not going so it will not be us they will watch.

A preacher in a back country town got mad at the village paper not long ago and ordered it stopped. "We were sending it to him complimentary, too," chuckled the editor.

There comes to my desk a story of a farmer who was trying to fill out a railway company claim sheet for a cow that had been killed on the track. He came down to the last item: "Disposition of the carcass."

After puzzling over the question for some time, he wrote: "Kind and gentle."

Col. Lindbergh surely cannot be blamed for not minding his own business or nebbing into that of other people.

We hope the city council will not forget to pave that piece of scandalous road lying between the end of Sampson street and the garbage plant. A lot of people travel that road and it should be paved. It will even be a great investment for the city as it will save the trucks from being shaken to pieces.

We hard a lady say "It isn't until a woman is married that she realizes how fortunate an old maid is." She may be right, but how about the married men who would be perfectly contented to release their wives to the state of old maiddom they so earnestly crave?

They used to call dancing "hugging set to music," but a good deal of the modern joy riding seems to be hugging set to motion.

The easiest way to determine the exact number of idle men is to establish a sign painter in each block and count 'em.

A cousin of President Coolidge is president of the Vermont Democratic State Committee and will head the delegation to the Dem Convention at Houston. Well, we hope he is as good a Democrat as the president is a Republican.

We are asked to tell what a prune is. Well a prune is a raisin with inflammatory rheumatism.

One thing can be truthfully said about the coming meeting of the Lawrence County Democratic committee. All who attend will be Democrats and there will be no alleged Republicans there.

KNOWS THE FILES

Chief clerk to young lady file clerk just back from her vacation: "Miss Emery, we've hunted ever since you left for that file on the killing of Farmer Head's two steers. Can you locate it?"

"Certainly," and she produced it in two seconds.

"That's it, but where did you have it filed?"

"Why, there's only one possible place, right here under 'Dead Freight'."

Most all nurseries will tell you fall is the best time to plant rose bushes, but they sure do make an effort to sell them in the spring, and even as late or later than June 1. They even go to the trouble of having them in bud for us to plant at this time of the year.

Now comes the story of a Scotchman who stopped sending his children to school because they had to "pay" attention.

Hints and Dints: Our oldest was a mathematician, and she loved to give us all hard problems to do. Her sister grew desperately tired of problems she couldn't solve for her older sister's glory.

One night she, the younger girl said, "I can give you a problem you can't do either." "I bet I can do it," the older one replied. The younger girl said, "A dog's tail is eight inches long and two inches in circumference; how many hairs on the dog's tail?"

That ended the torment of problems for the younger girl. The girls were 8 and 7 years old at the time.

AN OLD ONE.

A United States senator has been sued by a "tax consultant", whatever that is, in Washington for five hundred thousand dollars damages for the senator slandering him in a speech on the floor of the Senate. Then there are still people who pay attention to anything said in the Senate by senators!

The only darning stockings get these days is the verbal kind when they begin to ladder.

Some men are so argumentative that if they were on a one-man jury they would disagree.

It seems to us that Thomas A. Edison is unduly optimistic over his ability to "develop a rubber plant in six or eight years." We have seen what purported to be rubber plants that have been nursed along for a lifetime by some hopeful woman, and they are still horticultural freaks.

We have every reason to believe that carpenters and roofers of all kinds can look forward to much work in the future when the airships get as thick as automobiles now are. Even trees will get their razzing from above. In fact, a tree has always been a safe refuge up to now, but it's all off in getting out of danger by climbing a tree since the airships are here. Even some autos have tried to climb trees, but they failed.

SAY IT NOW

"Do not keep the alabaster boxes of your love and tenderness sealed up until your friends are dead? Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled by them."—Henry Ward Beecher.

The man who wrote "'Tis love that makes the world go 'round", might have added, "With that worried expression."

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1928, by N. Y. American, Inc.)

What is the matter with our children? Not much, but a great deal is the matter with some parents.

The police are hunting for a little girl, 10 years old, invited to go to a party by a plausible man, 58 years old, last Sunday. The child did not know the man, the parents did not know him. But the parents said, "Certainly". Off she went in the stranger's car, and that's the last seen of her.

Every public school should have an annex with the sign over the door:

"Primary common sense for parents."

Secretary Hoover is getting additional delegates rapidly, numerous contests being settled in his favor. It looks like "Smith and Hoover, New York and California, the Atlantic versus the Pacific."

Other news tells that Mrs. Charles H. Sabin and Mrs. Medill McCormick "are burning up the wires from coast to coast fighting Hoover".

Mrs. McCormick is the daughter of the powerful Mark Hanna, and Mrs. Sabin is the daughter of Paul Morton, once a considerable financier, and wife of the head of one of the biggest New York trust companies.

Secretary Hoover, always philosophical, knows that souvent femme varie, which means that women occasionally change their minds.

He may soon be appointing these two ladies on important committees. And they will say, "He's a perfect old dear".

Miss O'Brien, adventurous young explorer, returns to St. Paul, Minn., disappointed in the African pygmies. She shot all kinds of game, endured all kinds of hardship and says Africa is all right for a woman, but a little too rough for a man.

"The pygmies are darling little creatures", says she, "but I had to teach them to act wild." She wanted moving pictures of them.

Many American girls could teach any pygmy to act wild, and do so.

Fiji Islanders, bushy-haired, active, gave a warm welcome to the monoplane Southern Cross, landing at Suva.

Those Fijians once had an annoying habit of eating white men. This time they only cheered them.

The fliers have beaten all records, including Lindbergh's long distance flight over water. It is 5,538 miles of ocean from Oakland, Cal., to Suva, Fiji Islands, via Hawaii.

The next hop, 1,700 miles, will take the fliers to Brisbane, Australia, on the way to Sydney. The world is really flying.

The 250 Fiji Islands, about 80 of them inhabited, belong to old grandmother Britannia. She rarely overlooks anything.

When young people that now read this column get their around-the-world flying machines they may find chances to grow up with the country on some of those uninhabited, unexplored Fiji Islands.

The stock market was happier Tuesday. Things that had gone down went up. You notice that the strongest stocks often suffer most in a sudden slump for a simple reason.

The greater the number of ignorant speculators in a stock, the greater the hurry to throw the stock overboard in a panic. When little lambs throw good stocks the big fellows stand by and let them fall, always waiting for bargains.

Thousands of small merchants struggling for a living, or moderately prosperous, will read with no great pleasure about constantly increasing chain store sales. For May the increase was as high as 51.5 per cent.

It is a big problem for the little man. But sympathy means nothing. Only strong combination will meet that kind of competition.

Silesia is Poland's richest province, with 1,200,000 people that work hard. It has coal, iron, lead, zinc. It is second to this country in zinc production.

And bonds of Silesia ought to be good. Why does Silesia pay 7.94 per cent to borrow money? Why does Silesia have to sell a $1,000 bond for $892?

The answer to that question may some day disturb those that own the bonds.

Bolshevistic Russia is not far from Poland, and some of Wall Street's boy bankers know what Russia does to bond buyers.

Our British friends have assured us that we had too much gold in America.

"It wasn't healthy, financially speaking."

Today New York's National City Bank sends $10,000,000 in gold to London. Since last September Uncle Sam has got rid of $452,000,000 in gold. Rather puzzling, except to those that understand finance, and completely puzzling to them.

THE BEST MEDICINE

The best general all round tonic is good cheer. It has never yet been discovered what chemical action a pleasant feeling has on the body. But it surely stimulates the glands, purifies the blood, tones the nerves and does other beneficial things to you as do vitamines or radium or electricity.

And more thoroughly. There are certain substances in chemistry known as catalyzors. They do not unite with any other substances, but certain chemical reactions take place when they are present. Certain kinds of chemical changes will refuse to operate except when they are in the house, as it were.

Altogether, cheer is the chief catalyzor of the world.

The career of Chauncey Depew, which was recently closed, was a good illustration of this and ought to supply health lecturers with a lot of ammunition.

To be sure, he lived simply, and although he attended thousands of banquets, he knew enough not to eat too much and had given up drinking and smoking in his later years. But a lot of people do these things and still die young.

Some people say that a certain religious faith will preserve life and stave off sickness, but the data on this theory are not very satisfying.

There is no doubt, however, that a sense of humor is the best freind of the human organism. More people worry themselves to death than die in any other way.

Why worry! If a thing can be helped, help it. If it can't be helped, laugh!

People who treat of unpleasant things, write about them, talk of them and enjoy them, who love rainy days and want to see the hospitals full and like to go to see "Desire Under the Elms", and "The American Tragedy" and "The Captive", say all that stuff is real. It is actual life. And the people who are always cheerful are merely kiddiing themselves.

There seems to be a general impression that truth wherever you find it is disagreeable. The most common notion about God connects him with disaster of some kind or another. We say of misfortune that it is the nature of God, and when anybody is suffering trouble he is chasfised of God, and the like.

What about God giving us a good time?

God making the liver operate?

God giving us a good digestion? And so on?

The fact of the matter is that truth is neither pleasant nor unpleasant. Whether it be agreeable or not depends upon your attitude towards it.

Optimism and pessimism are not real. They are both attitudes towards reality, and it is a good deal better to look at things from the sunny side than from the shadowy side.

And Chauncey Depew, who lived along pleasantly until a few days before his death and lived to be ninety-four, proves this.

Tomorrow—A Book for Commencement.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

SOMETIMES IT'S DIFFERENT.

It is often said that the most unfriendly place in the world is a big city. The man or woman without funds in New York, for instance, finds deaf ears and stoney glances to their appeals. That may be true, but if the broken ones had more imagination and less tears, results might be different.

A visitor to New York who was not exactly "broke", nevertheless, found himself recently in a very vexatious position. He had heard about the "deaf ears and stony glances" but found that New Yorkers were also "a bit sociable." He tells the following story:

"About to board a street car with only a short time to make an important business engagement some distance away, I discovered my funds on hand consisted of a fifty-dollar bill and three cents in change. Realizing the car conductor might not be able to make change for me, I stopped at a corner refreshment counter, ostensibly to buy but really to get my bill changed. He couldn't do that, but obligingly offered to 'let me eat today and pay tomorrow.' I tried a cigar store, outwardly professing to want to telephone. The clerk couldn't change it either, but offered to lend me a nickel to make my call. After trying an automat, the subway booth and a few other places without success, I boarded the trolley, lest I miss my appointment, and took a chance on the conductor. But as I surmised, he couldn't change my 'fifty' either.

"'Well, I suppose I'll have to get off and walk, then', I ventured.

"'Oh, no, I guess not,' he replied.

"I made my engagement on time, and decided New York wasn't so bad as sometimes reported."

TWILIGHT

There come to me a few glad moments, when
The busy day is ended, and I stray
Into the garden, shut away from men
And all their tasks and all the sports they play.

The birds are homing for the coming night,
The air is still and peaceful and serene,
But there's a beauty in the fading light
Which at the noon of day is seldom seen.

Pansies and poppies, peonies and phlox,
All with a long day's toil complete to view!
Trees which have stood perennial storms and shocks
Old as the world, yet always young and new.

I walk among them where the shadows fall,
And seem to feel in touch with things divine.
Who knows, but I am brother to them all,
Brother to a blue-bell, rose and columbine?

WORKING TEACHERS

Don't imagine the school teacher has an easy life. Startling figures come from the state of New York. Seventy-seven per cent of the teachers who retired because of ill health in that state in the past six years retired under the age of 55. With proper working habits and resting habits and proper care, men and women ought to be doing their best work at 55 or over. Sixty per cent of the retirements were between the ages of 45 and 50, while 14 per cent stopped working between 40 and 45.

IN NEW YORK

Ralph Waldo Trine was in to see me, and I had an interesting visit with him. He is the author of "In Tune With the Infinite," a book that was first issued thirty years ago, and has sold nearly a million copies. He has written several other books, but this one is known to more people than almost any other modern book. Charles M. Sheldon's "In His Steps" sold many more copies, but its sale was chiefly during a period of a few years, and I doubt that many people buy it today. "In Tune With the Infinite" is as popular now as it was 30 years ago.

Three generations of the present royal family of England have read and loved this remarkable book. Queen Victoria praised "In Tune With the Infinite," and last Christmas the Prince of Wales, having read the book and admired it, bought a copy for his father, the king, as a Christmas present.

Mr. Trine is a kindly, conversational man, and doesn't appear to be nearly old enough to have written a book thirty years ago. He is full of maxims and little sermonettes about life and living. He once attended Johns Hopkins university as a graduate student. He is a friend and admirer of Henry Ford, who has derived much inspiration from Mr. Trine's books.

I promised to report on the sunbath beach on the roof of a building across the street from my office. Developments have been few, up to the time of writing this, because the days have been cool. The bathers that I have seen have been young men. They bathe in a big tub on the roof, and then lie on slatted couches and dry in the sun. This gives the Florida tan at a fraction of the cost of a season at the beach. I expect to see a crowded roof-beach when really hot weather comes.

Elmer Peterson, a magazine editor from Des Moines, and Bernard Vaughan, editor of a weekly in St. Paul, were among my recent visitors. I gather from them that business conditions in Iowa and Minnesota are encouraging. It is interesting to me to hear about the growing literary and artistic life in these important cities. St. Paul, Minneapolis, and Des Moines are independent cities. They do not look to New York for life or permission to live and think. And yet they are thoroughly in touch with the world all the time. It is pleasant to live in such cities.

Dr. F. Strickland Goodall, promiient British heart specialist, tells us hat while deaths from cancer in the ast few years have increased only 25 er cent, deaths from heart trouble ave increased 400 per cent. The ental and emotional strain of modrn life is held responsible. Says Dr. oodall:

"The whole of modern life cuts up rest and tends to increase emotion, and emotion increases heart strain."

PUBLICITY

It was once said—and it has been quoted ever since—that the love of money is the root of all evil. In this modern day it might better be said that the love of publicity is the root of evil. It is the exceptional individual who does not crave the attention of others. That instinct is so highly developed in some that it becomes abnormal. Of such are the criminals whose hope for attention and publicity is one of the chief reasons for their crimes. And men who are not criminals and are not abnormal go a long way, openly or secretly, to place themselves in a particularly favorable light before their friends.

FIGHTING THE DARK

Man in the long ages has won his fight against the dark. For hundreds of thousands of years he may have found no means of lighting the night. Even up until 69 years ago, when oil was discovered in large quantities, man had won but a small victory in his fight against the shadows. Candles were inadequate. Oil lamps lighted him far on his way. Now scientists are predicting the development of some substitute for the almost new electric light.

In many ways the life of man has changed more in the past 70 years than in the 30 centuries preceeding.

Four Additions To College Faculty

Announce Four New Members For Westminster Faculty For Next Fall

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 7.—Announcement was made yesterday by the Westminster college board of trustees of four new members of the faculty who will be added to the staff next September.

Dr. Harold L. Black has been given the position as professor of mathematics. Dr. Black is a graduate of Albion college, having received the A. B. degree there in 1923. In 1924 the University of Illinois granted him the M. A. degree, and in 1926 he was granted the Ph. D. degree from the same university. He has taught at Bay View university summer school for two years and has been an instructor on the faculty of the University of Illinois since 1926.

Miss Dorothy Kirkbride, a graduate of Westminster in the class of 1925 and a graduate of the conservatory in 1926, holding both A. B. and Mus. B. degrees, has been appointed professor of piano. Miss Kirkbride, whose home is in New Wilmington, spent a year in foreign study after her graduation from Westminster, and during the past year has been assistant professor of piano at Juniata college, Huntingdon, Pa.

The position of assistant professor of mathematics and physics was created by the board last spring, and John G. Moorhead, a graduate of Indiana university, was appointed to the position. Mr. Moorhead has A. B. and M. A. degrees from Indiana university and will be granted his Ph. D. degree at Northwestern university this summer. He has had 12 years of teaching experience in the public schools of Indiana, at Purdue university and at Northwestern university.

Ben Euwema, a graduate of Calvin college in 1925, has been appointed instructor in English. Mr. Euwema holds the degree of A. B. from Calvin college, the degree of A. M. from the University of Michigan, and is now a graduate student and instructor at the University of Chicago. He has taught at the University of Chicago for the past year.

These additions to the faculty, in keeping with the progress of the institution, will give even more facilities for carrying on work next year when the increased facilities for residence and instruction will naturally attract a larger student body.

Sandy Lake Schools To Be Consolidated

Township Schools Will Merge With Those Of Borough, If Plans Materialize

MERCER, June 7.—Enlargement of the school district of the borough of Sandy Lake to take in the township of same name in so far as the major portion of the grammer schools of that township are concerned is now being considered by the board of education of Sandy Lake township.

Should it occur it will be the first enlargement of a town district to affect a school consolidation in the county.

It is reported that consolidations of rural schools are being considered by a number of township boards.

All that holds back such a program is the lack of funds to carry them out and the major portion of the teachers in the township districts are convinced of the increased advantages that accrue from graded schools.

Demonstration Of Lime Slacking

A meeting to demonstrate the proper slacking of lime and the mixing of potato sprays will take place Monday evening, June 11, at the farm of Robert P. Peebles, two miles north of Harlansburg, announces County Agent H. R. McCulloch.

It is essential, cautions Mr. McCulloch, that the lime for sprays be properly slacked, or the sprayer will give trouble, and a thorough job will not be done. The meeting is open to the public, and all those who are interested are invited to attend.

So many complaints have been received by the police concerning the dangerous condition of the Mayne property, corner South and South Mercer streets, that the owner has been notified by the police department to have a rope stretched in front of and around his building in such a manner as to prevent any possible injury to passing pedestrians.

A Delicious New Jam You Can Make from STRAWBERRIES and PINEAPPLE in 15 minutes

This recipe for Mixed Pineapple and Strawberry Jam is very popular.

No finer blend of flavors can be imagined than that of the delicately luscious strawberry with the refreshing tartness of ripe, juicy pineapple. Many women like this recipe, too, for its economy, since the pineapple makes your strawberries go so much further.

Crush to a fine pulp about 1 quart ripe berries. Put pineapple (fresh or canned) through food chopper, or chop very fine. Measure 2 level cups of each fruit into large kettle. In case of slight shortage of one fruit, use enough of the other fruit to make 4 cups total. Add 7 level cups (3 lbs.) sugar and mix well. Use hottest fire and stir constantly before and while boiling. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard for 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in ½ cup Certo. Skim, pour quickly, and cover hot jam at once with hot paraffin wax.

Certo is the natural jellifying substance extracted from fruit, refined and bottled so that you may use it with all fruits to get a quick, perfect "set" without long boiling.

With the delicately flavored pineapple and strawberry the advantages of the Certo method are especially noticeable. For Certo not only makes these difficult fruits jell perfectly every time, but the short boil, possible only with Certo, prevents the loss of fresh flavor and color which occurs during long boiling.

"Certo way the best way" says eminent cooking expert

Miss Alice Bradley, Principal, Miss Farmer's School of Cookery and Cooking Editor, Woman's Home Companion, says—"One trial will convince you that the best way to make jams and jellies is 'The Certo Way.'"

Your grocer has Certo. A book of simple, tested recipes comes under the label of each bottle.

State Will Send 500 Delegates To World Convention

Again with the approach of the World's Sunday School Convention in Los Angeles July 11-18, Pennsylvania Sabbath School leaders are manifesting their interest and leadership in this work.

Pennsylvania will send approximately 500 delegates to this convention. The fact is, one train load, called the Pennsylvania School Special, leaving July 4th, has already been filled up, and a second train is being arranged for.

Two hundred and thirty Pennsylvanians will travel together over the continent on this first train of twelve Pullman cars, made up of a baggage car accessable at all times, two diners, six sleepers two compartment and one observation.

Pennsylvania already has more registrations than any other State or Province excepting California, the convention state.

Dr. Price, of the World's Association than 4,000 registrations, and conservatively estimates that there will be fully more than 7,000 delegates from all over the world.

With the program of such splendid speakers from all over the world and with such a delegation of interested workers gathering there in a time of industrial depression, can anyone say that interest in the Sabbath School is waning?

Practically every county in the state will be represented at this World's Convention. All the County Sabbath School secretaries throughout the state are posted on these World Convention trips.

Festival Service At St. Barnabas Home

Occasion To Be Greatest In History Of Brotherhood; Bishop To Be Present

Word has been received from Brother Gousvenier of the St. Barnabas Brotherhaad that the annual festival service will be held at St. Barnabas' Home, Gibsonia, Pa., on the eve of the Feast of St. Barnabas, apostle and martyr, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, daylight savings time. The occasion will be the greatest in the history of the brotherhood, as the Most Reverend John Gardner Murray, D. D., presiding bishop of the Episcopal church, will make his first visit to the home and will preach at the services. Brother Gousvenier invites all who would like to do so to come. Opportunity will be given to inspect this wonderful and unique charity for friendless, penniless men, received into the home without regard for what their religious faith may be. Several people from this city are already planning to take parties by automobile to the service. The 11 a. m. service in Trinity church is being specially arranged so that without irreverence it will be shorter than usual.

Mental Diseases Showing Increase

By GEORGE H. MANNING.
(Washington Correspondent of the News.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—Feeble-mindedness and epilepsy is increasing in Pennsylvania at a relatively greater rate than the state's population.

First admissions at Laurelton State Village and the Penhurst and Polk State schools, the three state institutions, increased from 310 in 1922 to 439 last year, according to Department of Commerce figures. First admissions in 1927 numbered 4.5 per 100,000 of population as compared with 3.6 per 100,000 for 1926 and 3.4 for 1922.

The number of patients in the three Pennsylvania institutions on the first day of this year was 3,695 as compared with 1,619 on January 1, 1910. This increase was much greater than the increase in the population of the state from 1910 to 1928, since on the first of the current year there were 37.7 patients under care to 100,000 of the general population, as compared with 21.1 patients per 100,000 on January 1, 1910.

The government's census figures show that the number of patients under care and also the ratio of such patients per 100,000 of the population, increased greatly from 1910 to 1922 but has increased only slightly since 1922.

That feeble mindedness and epilepsy is more prevalent among women than men is indicated by the fact that of the first admissions in Pennsylvania during 1927, 184 were males and 255 females. Of the patients under care on the first of the current year, 1,744 were males and 1,951 were females.

STUDEBAKER

The Great Independent

wins automobile dealers as well as public with CHAMPION CARS

26% more Studebaker Dealers this year than ever before

FOR nine consecutive months retail deliveries of Studebaker-built automobiles have increased over those of the corresponding months of a year previous—this in face of a decrease in sales for the industry as a whole.

The swing toward Studebaker is the inevitable result of adding spectacular performance to One-Profit value—and then proving the stamina and speed of the cars by severe tests under American Automobile Assn. supervision.

All official records for fully equipped stock cars are now held by Studebaker. Never before has one manufacturer thus swept the boards.

When such performance can be bought at Studebaker's remarkable One-Profit prices, why be content with less than a champion?

This table shows the number of Studebaker dealers in the United States today compared with totals for previous years.

1927	3054
1926	2054
1925	2036

1922	3000
1921	2384
1920	2216

Automobile dealers have been quick to follow the trend of the buying public toward Studebaker.

40 miles per hour even when NEW!

Studebaker's sensational proofs of speed and endurance come from engineering genius, quality materials, precision manufacture and rigid inspections. Because of these, any Studebaker may safely be driven 40 miles an hour the day you buy it. Motor oil need be changed but once in 2500 miles. The President, Commander and Dictator require chassis lubrication only after each 2500 miles.

Today in Studebaker and in Studebaker alone, you can buy the utmost in every phase of motoring—and behind it a name that for 76 years has meant dependable transportation. Come in, and drive a champion!

Diplomas Given To Large Class Of High School

of time Wednesday evening they were all even, all at the threshold of a new world, all of them gazing into a crystal that held for them the secret of what is to be.

Fiftieth Commencement

It was the 50th time that New Castle Senior High school had turned out such a group. Not always such a large group, but the 50th time that commencement had been held. This was the half century class, if you please, the 50th group to leave the halls of New Castle Senior High school.

There was little in the way of superficial coloring for the graduating exercises. None was needed. When an affair of such dignity is presented in a building of such beauty there is little to be done in the way of additional color. Such an occasion carries its own.

The Senior High school orchestra opened the program. As the curtain went back, revealing the 298 young men and women who graduated and the addition of school men and visitors, the orchestra swung into the overture to "Der Freischutz". Slowly the curtain went back as the orchestra raised its voice and the picture of the class unfolded. Rev. Philip C Pearson, rector of the Trinity Episcopal church, pronounced the invocation, and the commencement program was on.

Salutatorian Ill

The first speaker scheduled was Miss Jennie Wygonoski, the salutatorian, winner of second highest honors in the class. The strain of the past few days, coupled with a multitude of other duties, proved too much for this brilliant young miss, and she was forced to forego the pleasure of delivering her address. She was seated with her classmates, but could not read her manuscript, and this was done for her by Mary Elizabeth Gibson.

Miss Wygonoski is a graduate of the commercial course of the school, and quite appropriately chose a subject related to the course. Her subject was: "The Modern Business Woman". In it she showed the development of women in business and the opportunities offered now as compared with years ago. The subject was handled in a most interesting manner.

Dr. Eisenberg Speaks

Dr. J. Linwood Eisenberg, president of the Slippery Rock Teachers' College, delivered the commencement address and few classes have heard a more timely one. It was a scholarly piece of work, one that could spring only from a profound mind and graduate and spectator alike were impressed.

Dr. Eisenberg's subject was "The Value of An Education". "Tonight", he said, "we celebrate the nuptials of youth and opportunity. These young people possess the enthusiasm, energy, vision and faith of youth and look out onto a world rich with opportunity."

Classifying the different elements of his subject, Dr. Eisenberg pointed out five values of an education. Increased capacity to make a life. Increased capacity to do. Hope of life, and finally, the value of spirituality. It was an address peculiarly fitted for a high school graduating class and one that should leave its impress long after the memory of the occasion is gone.

Michael Caruso, one of the musicians of the class, followed with a violin solo, a difficult number by Jeno Jubay, and was forced to respond to an encore.

Following this Miss Alma Locke presented Lucy Rosati with the gold prize offered by the Lawrence chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution for the best essay.

Dr. Mildred Rogers, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, then presented Virginia Slee with the prize offered by the B. P. W. for general excellence in English during the high school course.

Gertrude Potter Valedictorian

Miss Gertrude Potter was the valedictorian of her class and chose for her subject, not some detailed discussion of a technical subject, nor a discourse upon international political conditions, but "The Scenic Beauty of Pennsylvania And Its Effect on Art and Literature". In it she dwelt upon the scenic splendor of the Keystone State and developed a splendid discourse upon the beauties of her own state.

Miss Elizabeth Steen followed with a well played piano solo and Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of schools, addressed the class and the audience. He drew attention to the increase in high school pupils in the United States in the past 25 years and the remarkable increase in the number of graduates from the New Castle Senior High school since the World War. He commended the co-operation of the townspeople with the board of school directors in giving New Castle a splendid educational system. In closing he bespoke the same high type of co-operation in the future, to the end that New Castle boys and girls may be afforded the very best obtainable in education.

Charles H. Young, president of the board of school directors, spoke briefly and presented the class with the diplomas that signified their completion of the required courses.

The benediction by Rev. Pearson and the exit march by the orchestra closed the program.

High School Essay Is Awarded D. A. R. Prize

Herewith is presented the 1928 prize winning composition of the history essay contest conducted annually at the senior high school by the Lawrence county chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, won by Miss Lucy Rosati, a member of this year's graduating class. The subject considered this semester was "The Frontier in the American Revolution."

The essay follows:

"THE FRONTIER IN THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

The frontier has ever been the strategic point in the making of America. During the Revolutionary War, as always, it showed its worth, for it practically won the war. The English had access to the ports. England—mistress of the sea! Could she not hold, and easily hold, the poorly protected ports of America? If victory depended upon ocean and coast fighting alone, would she not have won the war? Yes, easily! But the victory did not depend upon these alone, and so the frontier men stirred. With their courage, their native ability and quickness of mind, their knowledge of geographical conditions and their guerilla warfare, they took advantage of the inactivity and blunders of the British—and won the war for America!

The frontier first came into prominence, when before the Revolutionary War, it defied the orders of King George III, prohibiting the people from moving westward, and with a fearlessness and determination that is truly American, made settlements in the forbidden ground.

On April 19, 1775, at Lexington, the shot was fired which began the war for independence—a war which was destined to end in the defeat of one of the world's powers. Now the time had arrived during which the frontier was to prove its real worth. The time had come during which the frontier was to put its shoulders to the wheel and help push the country out of danger and on to independence. This it did, both valiantly and well. We see the frontier stir into action, and then a definite move took place. The "Green Mountain Boys", headed by Ethan Allen, surprised the country by making an attack at Ticonderoga, the British fortress, and capturing it. A few days later Crown Point was taken. The fact that these two fortresses went into American hands is quite conceivably important, for it gave them a foothold along the frontier.

The war, now begun in earnest, progressed rapidly. Events followed thick and fast, and through it all the frontier shines resplendent.

Burgoyne, the British general, decided to attack Bennington, a village which was the centre of the supplies of General Lincoln of the American forces. With the hope of getting these supplies he sent out an army under Colonels Baum and Breymann to capture this village. However, his plans were soon frustrated. Baum was mortally wounded and forced to surrender to General John Stark. Breymann was put to flight and his troops were dispersed by Seth Warner. This brilliant American victory—a frontier victory—had its important consequences. Burgoyne's advances were checked until he could get more supplies, and his communications with Ticonderoga, which he had recaptured, were cut off. On the other hand, it inspired the Americans and put in them the hope that the whole of Burgoyne's army could be made to surrender.

The Iroquois Indians, always friendly toward the English, now took sides—some for the British, some for the Americans. Those in favor of the British joined the Tories and, headed by Colonel Barry St. Leger, moved toward the capture of the Mohawk valley. Blocking their progress was the American fort, Stanwix, which was garrisoned by Colonel Peter Ganesvoort and his men. This, the Hastening to the aid of Colonel Ganesvoort was General Nicholas Herkimer with his men. They were soon discovered through an Indian scout, who carried the news to St. Leger, and an ambush was prepared in a ravine near Oriskany. Here was fought the battle of Oriskany, one of the bloodiest battles of the war. The battle ended in a victory for General Herkimer—another frontier victory!

Conditions soon became more favorable for the Americans, and soon were fought the battles which ended in the surrender of Burgoyne's entire army. The Americans, led by General Arnold, fought excellently, and Burgoyne was forced to surrender his army to General Gates at Saratoga. Thus the turning point of the war was reached, for it was this battle that brought the French alliance, destroyed the British plans, and gave the Americans new courage and a willingness to go ahead.

Steadily the warfare on the frontier increased in prominence and importance. The Tories, led by Sir John Johnson, Colonel John Butler and Joseph Brant with his Mohawks, made their headquarters at Fort Niagara. Frequent and terrible were the blows dealt from here, but the most impressing of these are the attack on the Wyoming valley, in Pennsylvania, and the attack on the village of Cherry Valley, New York, by Brant and Walter Butler, in which the inhabitants were massacred. These, together with other dreadful affairs, made a deep impression upon the Americans.

Washington dealt a lasting blow to the Indians when he sent his troops through the country of the Cayugas and Senecas, Indians who favored the British, and destroyed it. These Indians affairs on the frontier were more or less prominent, for the Americans were pushing westward. Led by Daniel Boone, James Harrod, John Sevier and others, they formed settlements. Trouble with these people led the powerful Cherokee Indians to side with the British, and feuds were frequent until they were crushed by John Sevier, the "lion of the border", and thus were defeated.

In the country north of the Ohio river roamed some of the fiercest of Indians. These the British colonel, Hamilton, attempted to unite in an attack upon the frontier. It is this that led George Rogers Clark to make his famous expedition into that country, capture the posts of Kaskaskia and Cahokia, defeat and capture Hamilton at Vincennes, and finally conquer the whole northwestern territory for the state of Virginia, adding more victories to the credit of the Americans—and the frontier! How timely this was, for a few months later a band of Spaniards marched from St. Louis to the head of the Illinois river and claimed the northwest in the name of Spain. Had it not been for George Rogers Clark, the territory which he had claimed for Virginia would have fallen into Spanish hands.

More victories followed. The Americans stormed Stoney Point, withdrew the cannon and stores and destroyed the fortress, thus checking the British plan to attack West Point, the great stronghold on the Hudson river. Things progressed rapidly. The British seized Charleston, regardless of the brave fighting of Francis Marion, Thomas Sumter and others. However, they were defeated at Kings Mountain, and again at Cowpens. These two frontier battles dealt a death blow to the British, for they reduced the army considerably.

The war was now drawing to a close, and on October 17, 1781, Cornwallis, at Yorktown, surrendered, and thus ended the last act in that mighty drama—the American Revolutionary War.

Looking back upon those days—the Revolutionary days—we realize how much of the victory of this great war was dependent upon frontier fighting. American lives were sacrificed. American blood was spilt. American homes were shattered. America's infant industries were destroyed, but that flag—those stars and stripes floating proudly, triumphantly, in the breeze—now waves over a powerful country extending from ocean to ocean; a country where there is no longer a frontier; a country where "we, the people" rule! It waves through the tireless efforts of brave people; it waves as the result of blood spilt for a just cause—and we of the later day enjoy the results—reap the benefits which the courageous patriotism of our forefathers has given us!

GIRL'S GREATEST APPEAL DECIDED

Every girl in screenland must have smooth skin

LOS ANGELES, CALIF.—Beauty and charm of feature are not enough in the movie world! In addition every screen actress must have flawless skin, say the leading film directors. As Howard Bretherton, director for Warner films, says: "'Studio Skin' is the outstanding factor in screen success today."

That is why the care of her skin is of first importance to every actress in Hollywood. Nine out of ten film stars are using Lux Toilet Soap. This new soap is made by the celebrated method France uses for her finest soap and leaves the skin with the same feeling of velvety smoothness. Lois Wilson, Columbia star, says, "The satin-smooth skin the close-up reveals is something the cleverest make-up can't fake. Lux Toilet Soap is wonderful for it. I'm delighted with it."

All the big studios have placed Lux Toilet Soap in their dressing rooms as the official soap, which clearly indicates the value they place on a smooth skin. Lux Toilet Soap is manufactured by Lever Bros. Co., at Cambridge, Mass.

Boy Scout Camp To Be Busy Place

When Lawrence county Boy Scouts go to Camp Phillips this summer they will find outlined for them an every minute of their time says J. Lee Calahan, scout executive of the Lawrence County Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Nature Study is featured at Camp Phillips because of the beautiful surroundings on the banks of the Slippery Rock creek. Here the scouts may roam through the big woods filled with hemlock, birches, beeches, oaks and 25 other varieties of trees; here they can lay on their cots in the sleeping huts and hear the water as it rushes over the dam down by the old covered bridge as it splashes over the great rocks in the gorge; here they can play and learn to commune with nature at its best.

The Indian village that was instituted last summer under the direction of Owen P. Fox who is head of the pagentry and ceremonial committee will be enlarged this year to take care of more boys and the archery range will be relocated. A new street of lean-tos will be erected and will be known as the Cliff Dwellers camp.

Plans are now under way for the establishment of an Eagle's nest, a new camp site exclusively for Eagle Scouts.

For boys under 12 years of age who wish to go to camp special plans are being made by Mr. Calahan. At each session they will be well taken care of. Boys under 12 who wish to go to camp this summer should get in touch with Mr. Calahan at Boy Scout headquarters immediately.

Democrats Idle As Republicans Select Nominee

Democrats Sit Idly By As Republicans Prepare For Nominating Convention

TWO CONTESTS ON HOUSTON HORIZON

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 7—The Democrats are sitting tight while the Republicans stage their show at Kansas City.

By the time the Democrats gather at Houston June 26, the Republican nominee will have been selected.

With but a few contests slated, the Democratic national committee will not have to meet far in advance of the convention as the Republican committee did. So far only two contest notices have been filed, with a probability, however, that a few others will come along later. There are contests in the canal zone delegation and in Philadelphia, where charges have been made of an alleged combination of Democratic and Vare Republican forces. This charge was first laid before the senate presidential funds committee.

Clem L. Shaver, chairman of the Democratic national committee, now at his home in Fairmont, West Virginia, plans to leave tomorrow for Houston to confer with Jesse H. Jones and convention officers. He is not expected to issue the call for the committee meeting until next week.

In the nomination race, the Democrats are faced by a situation somewhat analogous to that of the Republicans. Whereas in Kansas City it is Herbert Hoover against the field, in Houston it is Gov. Al Smith against a loosely-knit combination of other candidates.

Jeffrey emphasized that there will be no direct competition between him and the other two explorers. Commander Byrd and Captain Wilkins who will be in the Antartic at the same time.

Commander Jeffrey a veteran of one of the late Sir Ernest Shackletons trips to the Antarctic expects to number among his companions Captain Arthur Argles who hopped off on a trans-Atlantic flight this morning as navigator for Mabel Boll.

"While we may fly over the pole" he said "the real purpose of the voyage will be to define the boundaries of Graham's land and to learn whether it is a continent or two or more bodies."

Chicago In Fight On Rabies Epidemic; Treats Many Cases

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, June 7.—A bitter war against an epidemic of rabies is being waged by city health authorities here.

Treatments at the rate of a hundred a day are often given persons bitten by possibly rabid dogs, according to officials at the Iriquois hospital.

Since last October more than a thousand persons have been given anti-rabies serums.

The course of treatment for persons bitten by dogs consists of one injection a day for two weeks, the Iriquois officials said. Because of the prevalence of hydrophobia among dogs in the city, many of the treatments are being given free.

Several persons have died from infection following bites from rabid dogs.

The city humane officers have enforced strict regulations for muzzling of all dogs, and licensing, and animals are shot at the first evidence of the disease.

Along Sheridan road and the exclusive gold coast even society has been forced to take precautions with its dogs. Most of them are on leash.

City health officials, as well as county officials, hope to bring an end to the rabies menace here within thirty days.

Married Artists Urge Change In Prize Rule At Fine Arts School

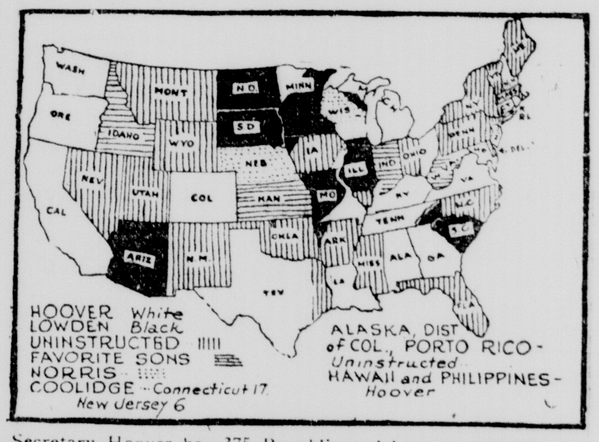
(International News Service)

PARIS, June 8.—Students of the celebrated School of Fine Arts are protesting with renewed vigor this year against the ironclad regulation which prevents the much-coveted Prix de Rome going to a married artist.

Years before the war there were one or two violent incidents when excellent artists were not given the sculpture prize because they happened to have wives. There were also minor tragedies, even divorces (with marriage later on) and numerous marriages which were not legally recognized until after the term of school ended.

The students declare that the rule is "barbarous" and contrary to every standard of morals, since it favors "free unions"; that it is contrary to justice and logic.

HOW HOOVER'S STRENGTH LINES UP



Secretary Hoover has 375 Republican delegates pledged, and claims many of those shown above as uninstructed. Uninstructed delegates total 428 and are counted on to give President Coolidge a running start if he does not definitely decline when Connecticut puts him in nomination on the first ballot. Lowden, whose districts are shown in black, has 171 votes and Borah, 11; Watson, 33; Norris, 35; Curtis, 23, and Goff, 13.

First Poor Weather For Commencement In Past 34 Years

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 7.—For the first time in more than a decade, Westminster was not blessed with good weather for a commencement season. According to Dean Charles Freeman, who yesterday completed 34 years of service at Westminster, this is the first year that the entire commencement season has been somewhat marred by rain and cloudy weather.

Despite the threatening showers, however, every function of the commencement season was run off on scheduled time. On Tuesday evening, when it was found that the traditional peace pow wow could not be held on the campus, the exercises were held in the United Presbyterian church. Howard L. Kelly of New Castle was dressed an an Indian chief, and John Rohrbaugh of Volant, representing the junior class, was dressed as a brave. These two, in poetic fashion, presented the ceremonies symbolic of peace between the graduating class and next year's class.

Sabbath School Delegates Urge Unswerving Support For National Prohibition

Standing solidly against any effort to weaken or abrogate the eighteenth amendment, delegates to the Lawrence County Sabbath School convention, being held at the Scottish Rite cathedral here today, expressed themselves in no uncertain terms on the matter.

Following are the resolutions passed by the delegates, reflecting their attitude:

Resolutions, 1928, County Sunday School Association.

WHEREAS, in our opinion the enforcement of the prohibition laws is the most important civic and political matter now engaging the attention and thought of the American people, and

WHEREAS, we think the sentiment of the people of Pennsylvania and of the nation is dry, and

WHEREAS, we feel that the Eighteenth Amendment is one of the most important, far-reaching, beneficial and uplifting additions ever made to the Constitution of the United States during its existence, and

WHEREAS, we view with alarm the efforts being made in some quarters to weaken and pull down the laws which have been passed to aid in putting into effect the said amendment;

Now be it RESOLVED, That we, the Lawrence County Sabbath School Association in county convention assembled do hereby express ourselves as being unalterably opposed to any attempts to abrogate, weaken, or nullify the prohibition laws of our State and of the Nation. We do pledge our whole-hearted support to the officers who are responsible for the enforcement of said laws and we call upon all candidates for public office to state unequivocably their position on this most vital question.

WHEREAS, this is a Presidential year and a new President is to be chosen at the November election, be it

RESOLVED, That we express ourselves unqualifiedly in favor of candidates for the office who are staunchly in favor of prohibition and its enforcement.

RESOLVED, That we are opposed to what is known as the "Continental Sunday" and we are opposed to any attempt to make it legal to hunt, fish exhibit moving pictures, or to play baseball and similar sports or games on the Sabbath day.

WHEREAS, our nation has been leading in the movement for the limitation of armaments and the adoption of anti-war treaties, be it

RESOLVED, That we affirm our desire for peace for ourselves and for other nations and urge upon all people law observance and good citizenship as the best means for developing a peaceful people.

Inasmuch as there has been some religious instruction in our public schools, and

WHEREAS, this convention favors it, now be it

RESOLVED, That we use our best endeavor to foster and promote the same.

RESOLVED, That we congratulate the officers and members of the County Sabbath School Association for the large part they played in making the late State Sabbath school convention the largest in the history of the association. By many who are in a position to know, it was declared to be the best ever held.

WHEREAS, our county has for a number of years had the high honor of having the State President, and

WHEREAS, He has conducted this high office with credit to himself and to the work in which we are engaged, be it

RESOLVED, That we extend to him our appreciation for his loyal and unselfish service in our cause of Sabbath school work throughout our entire state.

RESOLVED, That we appreciate our county and district officers who have been so faithful in their services in their several fields and who by their untiring and energetic efforts kept our county among the leaders in Sabbath school work in our state.

RESOLVED, That the W. C. T. U. of Lawrence county be commended for their efforts, by means of essay contests and other methods, to inoculate in the minds of the pupils of the public schools the harmful effects of alcohol and tobacco. We commend them alo for their efforts to restrict and suppress the sale of lewd and salacious literature.

RESOLVED, That we thank our hosts, the manager and directors of the Scottish Rite Cathedral association and the several committees for their help, co-operation and entertainment which have contributed to the success of this convention and we also thank the newspapers of our county for the generous publicity which they have given us.

Army Balloon Is Declared Winner

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The National Aeronautical Association Wednesday declared the Army No. 1 balloon winner of the national balloon races which started from Pittsburgh Decoration Day.

The army bag, piloted by Captain W. Kneper and Lieut. W. A. Earhart, Scott Field, Illinois, landed near Weems, Va., and was credited with an official distance of 261 1-2 miles, the shortest distance ever to win the contest.

The American Business Club entry from Akron, O., was second with a distance of 248 miles. It was manned by Pilot C. A. Palmer and Aide J. W. Mell.

Severe atmospheric disturbances, which forced the entries down within a few hours, accounted for the poor distances. Two of the contestants were killed.

WANTS OTHERS TO PROFIT BY HIS EXPERIENCE

Local Man Tells Public How Ten Herbs Benefited Stomach, Liver And Kidneys.

"Ten Herbs did me so much good, that I am willing to make a public statement, with the hope that all who suffer as I did, will profit by my experience and give your medicine a trial," was the statement of Mr. Joseph Colangelo, 410 Locust Street,

MR. JOSEPH COLANGELO

New Castle, to the Ten Herbs Man, who is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily demonstrating this celebrated new herbal medicine to crowds of people.

"Before taking Ten Herbs, I was in such bad condition that I sometimes wonder how I kept working," Mr. Colangelo continued. "I had no appetite, and my stomach was badly disordered. I suffered with gas pains continually. My liver was out of order, and I was always taking some kind of laxative. I was so weak and dizzy at times that I could hardly continue working the remainder of the day. My kidneys troubled me. I could not get proper rest at night, and would arise in the morning as tired as when I went to bed. I spent considerable money for medicines, but nothing did me any good.

"Since taking Ten Herbs, I am not bothered with my stomach. There are no more gas pains, and my kidneys seem to function properly. I do not get dizzy any more, and my appetite is fine. I get a good night's rest, as I sleep soundly; and I do not know what it is to get tired during the day."

Ten Herbs is proving a sensation not only in this city, but throughout this entire section, judging by increasing sales and the reports being received daily from men and women whom this popular medicine has helped back to better health. Ten Herbs has got to be good—it has got to benefit and invigorate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, or so many people in this community would not be using and recommending it.

The Ten Herbs Man is at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., 30 East Washington Street, this city, where he is daily meeting the public and explaining the merits of this medicine.

(International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., June 7—Charlie Chaplin and a party of screen celebrities escaped unhurt when a mysterious explosion early today wrecked the Russian Eagle cafe, rendezvous of film notables.

Ten other persons, including seven firemen, were injured by the blast, which followed a fire of undetermined origin.

One of the blast victims, Theodore Lodiginsky, film director and former general in the Russian army, was reported in a critical condition.

Besides Chaplin those who were warned in time to escape injury included the Marquis de la Falaise, husband of Gloria Swanson; Jack Dempsey and Estelle Taylor, John McCormick, his wife, Colleen Moore and Renee Adoree.

Under Influence Of Man She Shot To Death Says Girl On Witness Stand

(International News Service)

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., June 7.—Steeling herself for the cross-examination to follow, Marguerite Bumbaugh today continued her revelations of her love life with Walter H. Cook, the man she shot to death in his basket factory at Niles.

Miss Bumbaugh told of attempting to break away from Cook's influence by going to Pittsburgh and Chicago after Cook had driven her out past the city limits one night and made violent love to her.

Before calling Miss Bumbaugh to the stand, her attorney, Edwin J. Donahue, outlined the story she had to tell.

"When Marguerite Bumbaugh walked into Cook's office that day on March 30 and shot him, she was the victim of an insane delusion, Donahue said.

"As far as the brothers are concerned, they didn't know when they went to the office that she had a gun, nor did she know George had a pearl-handled revolver in his pocket."

The brothers, George and Gerard Buxbaugh, and Marguerite are pointly accused of Cook's murder. The brothers are alleged to have prevented interference from factory workers.

ANTI-HOOVER MEN IN BELATED MOVE TO UNITE FORCE

find a Foch, but his identity as yet remains hidden.

Meanwhile the smooth-running Hoover machine has been clicking with a regularity and efficiency that has actually and painfully astonished the remnants of the "old guard" faction in the Republican party that have heretofore been somewhat contemptuous of Hoover's political abilities.

Hoover came out of the delegate contests before the Republican national committee with virtually a clean sweep.

These contests were ended today. Of the 71 cases actually heard and voted upon by the committee, Hoover won 65. The Hoover managers could have won 67, but they deliberately voted against their own delegates in two Louisiana districts in order to give seats to and placate two influential negro politicians, one of whom is for Lowden and the other for Curtis. The other four that the Hoover people didn't win were territorial delegates whose affiliations are uncertain. They are technically described as uninstructed. Thus, for all practical purposes, the delegate contests resulted in virtually a complete victory and, incidentally, the addition of 65 or 69 votes to the already imposing Hoover total.

Hoover Forces Control

At all times the Hoover managers, some of which blandly obtained proxies and voted as members of the committee, demonstrated they were absolutely in control of the situation.

That is the condition of affairs that at last has thoroughly aroused and scared the unorganized allies into an effort to get some cohesion and unity into their efforts. They still have a week before the balloting begins. Much can sometimes be accomplished in a week, but there are many who doubt that an effective political machine can be assembled in that time. The machine which they are opposing took months to put together.

The two meetings held last night resounded with criticism of the cabinet candidate and demands for the nomination of someone whose name is not anathema to the corn belt.

One meeting attended largely by the supporters of Lowden, Dawes and Watson debated the prospects of carrying the fight over the southern contests to the credentials committee and to the convention itself, if necessary, thus appealing from the decision of the national committee.

Another meeting was held by anti-organization Republicans from Texas, who had gone down to crushing defeat in the committee a few hours earlier. It, too, was attended by partisans of Lowden, Dawes, Watson and Curtis. Congressman Ralph D. Cole, an Ohio delegate, demanded "a candidate who has been a lifelong Republican, a man trained in party battles, not a man who only returned from England eight years ago, and who never has been a worker in the ranks."

Trouble Brewing

In another hotel Senator Watson was holding forth on the importance of the grain belt to Republican success in November.

If the convention next week names a candidate unpopular in the Mississippi valley, he warned, there will be trouble ahead in November.

With the exception of Roosevelt and Coolidge, who stepped into the White House from the Vice Presidency, the Republican party has nominated but two men, Watson pointed out, who lived outside the Mississippi valley—Blaine and Hughes. Both were defeated.

This is the line of attack of the hard-pressed allies—Hoover's alleged unpopularity from the Alleghenies to the Rockies.

"Lose the farm vote and you lose the election", is the burden of their cry.

The warning cry is growing in volume as the allies become more and more disturbed over the obvious Hoover trend. It will reach crescendo proportions in a few days with the expected descent upon Kansas City of thousands of farmers from nearby grain states.

Meantime the committee on ways and means of stopping Hoover is constantly in session.

There's nothing in signs. Fifty years ago a dog in the house indicated poverty.

Facts About Optometry

By

ARTHUR B. FOSTER
OPTOMETRIST,
449 East Washington Street

Authorities agree that about 50 percent of the total population are in need of an eye service. That means that five in every ten are deficient visually to an extent that would justify their consulting the Optometrist.

A great many of these are persons who have reached an age when their eyes naturally have lost some of their power to focus for close work. But many younger folks are handicapped by defective vision. And the sad feature is the fact that many of them are not aware of their condition.

The Diary of a New Yorker

by CLARK KINNAIRD

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News

NEW YORK, June 7. — "Where should I go to see the celebrities?" inquires a prospective visitor to the Big Town, who neglects to indicate whether by "celebrity" she refers to such as Gene Tunney, "Daddy" Browning, William Faversham, Peggy Hopkins Joyce, the winner of the "Bunion Derby," Babe Ruth, "One-eyed" Connelley, Bud Fisher, Texas Guinan, et al., or, possibly, John Dewey, Dr. Lee De Forest, Dr. Will Durant, W. C. Durant, Dr. Lulu Hunt Peters, Cass Gilbert, THE Mrs. Vanderbilt, Elisabeth Marbury or H. L. Mencken.

New York celebrity hunters have the most sport at the openings of Broadway shows, at fashionable church weddings on Fifth or Park avenues, at charity balls promoted under "proper" auspices, and at benefit performances given by prominent stage organizations.

There come to mind some vagrant glimpses of persons notable or notorious: Charles M. Schwab, the steelmaster, astride a stool in Grand Central oyster bar. Fred Stone, the buffoon and acrobat, hanging perilously to a strap in a crowded Long Island train. Theodore Dreiser, the novelist, doing the same in a subway train. George Jean Nathan, the critic who dislikes the movies, and Lillian Gish, the cinema actress, unrecognized in a movie theater in Greenwich Village. Anthony Fokker, the plane-maker, grinning back at me as he turned off first one motor, then two, as the tri-motored ship bounced along at 100 miles an hour over New York City. Chorus girls "playing up" to Erich Von Stroheim, the movie badman, at Texas Guinan's.

Also Irvin Cobb, the story-confector, walking moodily in Sixth avenue. Burton Rascoe, the editor and critic, eating corn off the cob at Coney Island, at 3 a. m. Mrs. Frank A. Vanderlip, the society great-lady, and Mabel Boll, the "diamond queen," at a movie opening. Rube Goldberg, the cartoonist, taking in "home-movies" on Fifth avenue. Babe Ruth in the third row of a mystery melodrama. Adolph Ochs, owner of the New York Times pausing in the doorway of the Times Annex to talk with pressmen and compositors, waiting there for time to go to work.

And a few more: Morris Gest, the impresario (the high-brow word for show producer) having a sandwich in a quick-lunch. Paul Whiteman consuming chile at the Chile Villa. Koehl, Fitzmaurice and Von Heunefeld, the ocean flyers, at a musical "leg" show. A famous movie hero making whoopee in a speakeasy. Christopher Morley, the novelist and poet, trying to read while standing in a subway train. Jascha Heifetz, the fiddler, walking around Central Park reservoir. (Many notables go there for daily exercise). Texas Guinan riding a horse in Central Park after her club has closed for the day. Lieut. Comdr. Richard E. Byrd in an elevator at the Hotel McAlpin. Miguel Covarrubias, the caricaturist, eating fried bananas at Forno's cafe.

Alleged Hit-Skip Driver Caught

(International News Service)

GREENSBURG, June 7.—Alleged to be the "hit-and-run" driver who fled after an accident on a highway at Delmont, near here, when three persons were injured, Walter J. Astley, 32, of Wilkinsburg, was arrested Wednesday in East Pittsburgh by Constable Jacob Elpern, of Greensburg, it was reported by local police.

In default of bail, Astley was committed to jail on a misdemeanor charge to await a preliminary hearing police said.

The victims of the accident, Miss Olive Bender, Mrs. Ella J. Hammer and daughter, Josephine, all of Greensburg, are recovering in a hospital here. Charles Hammer, driver, was the only occupant of the machine to escape unhurt.

Note to politicians: To get the knack of building a great machine and persuading other people to provide the fuel, feed a Belgium.

DEPENDS ON PROPER FOOD AND DRINK

Purity of the things we eat has a great bearing on our health. Keeping foods, milk, fruits, vegetables fresh and sweet over long periods is a simple matter with an ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR.

The reason milk remains sweet in an ELECTRIC for days and days is this — the temperature always remains below 50 degrees — an even, dry, Arctic cold.

Install Old College Bell In New Westminster Tower

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., June 7.—The old bell, that called students to classes at Westminster since 1861, will again be the college signal next fall. Immediately following the 74th annual commencement exercises yesterday afternoon, the academic procession moved to the south front of Old Main Memorial where ceremonies of installing the old bell in the tower of the new building were held.

Dr. R. J. Love, professor of Bible, who was given an honorary degree as Doctor of Divinity at the commencement exercises earlier, offered the invocation. Dr. Wallace then called upon A. L. Cromlish, general superintendent of the Farrell Works of the Carnegie Steel Co. to explain his part in the remoulding and recasting of the bell. A pattern was made in the Farrell works, at the suggestion and with the direction of Mr. Cromlish and Henry Jaxtheimer, a graduate of Westminster. It was then shipped to the Edgar Thomson Plant of the Carnegie Co. at Braddock where, under direction of O. J. H. Harttsuff, general superintendent, it was remoulded so that it has the same shape and size and the same tone as formerly.

The tower in Old Main Memorial will be 112 feet high, high enough to be seen for many miles around. While it was not placed in its final position yesterday, due to the fact that the tower is but 50 feet high at present, the sound of the old bell was a welcome one to all former students, members of the faculty, and even townspeople.

Graduate Manager A. A. McDonald read a letter from Dr. graduate of the college, which told of his joy at hearing that the old bell was to ring again. To conclude the ceremonies, Dr. Charles C. Adams, a graduate of the college in 1905, pronounced the benediction.

"What are we doing for the youth of today?" asks an editorial writer. Well, for one thing, the drug stores now sell a tasteless castor oil.

Paint or repair—which?

It must be one or the other. The house that is left unpainted or that is painted with an inferior paint, quickly succumbs to the attack of the elements. The unprotected surface is eaten into by the rot and decay that follow rain and moisture.

Delay Election Of C. Of C. President

Because of a number of matters pressing the directors today at the noon meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, no election was held. It was thought that a president would be elected, but this has been postponed for one week. At the next meeting it is probable that a president will be named.

Letter Threatens Death To Girl In Kidnapping Case

Mother Of Little Grace Budd Of New York City Receives Letter Hinting Death

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 7.—A cruel hint of death for her kidnaped daughter Grace, came in a letter today to Mrs. Delia Budd, while the child's school mates were preparing to search a "haunted house" in Seventeenth street and detectives followed a vague clue that led to Chicago.

Mrs. Budd was sitting in her home when the death threat came.

"Mrs. Budd," she read, "you will have a funeral soon—"

The mother collapsed. Detectives refused to reveal the rest of the letter.

The Budd girl, 10-year-old product of New York's tenement house districts, was lured away from her home last Sunday by a stranger who was to take her to a "children's party".

The hunt for the child was extended throughout the city and into New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Mysterious telephone messages from Monmouth county, N. J., telling the mother that her daughter was seen there with the kidnaper and a man known to police as Frank Howard of Farmingdale, L. I., were being traced.

Firestone

TAKES THE MYSTERY OUT OF TIRE BUYING

Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires

The Tire Supreme

Why should anyone buy tires without knowing who makes them?

The manufacturer who made your tires has a definite obligation to you and unless you know who he is, how can you be sure of getting your money's worth for the price you pay?

In line with the Firestone policy of reducing motoring costs—of constantly giving the car owner greater value—Firestone manufactures a tire to fit every purse and purpose.

Firestone has pioneered every important advance in building tire quality for more than a quarter of a century. Firestone built the first balloon tires and knew how to make them travel further, faster, safer and with greater comfort than any tires ever built, through a special process of saturating and insulating the cord with rubber gum—preventing internal disintegration by heat and friction. These Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires have won every official record for speed, safety and endurance. Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires are the most durable and longest wearing tires in the world—and present prices on these wonderful tires are the lowest in history.

To obtain the utmost in quality, comfort and economy equip your car with the tire supreme—the Firestone Gum-Dipped Tire.

OLDFIELD

High Grade Standard Tire

Oldfield Tires are built by Firestone in the industry's most economical tire plants. They are the best values on the market because they have the advantages of Firestone exclusive manufacturing methods and special processes, all the economies of Firestone control of raw materials at the sources of supply—together with economical distribution direct from factories to car owners through the 30,000 Firestone Service Dealers.

You cannot get greater tire values anywhere in the world than you can get right in your own neighborhood from the regular service-giving Firestone Dealer who is a part of your business life, interested in everything that goes on in the community—and who is trained and equipped to give you better service.

The Oldfield Tire is the greatest value in standard tires. Firestone took over the manufacture and distribution of this tire from the Oldfield Tire Company, who for over four years sold it through its own dealers as the most outstanding tire on the market, securing a much higher price for the Oldfield than for any other high grade standard tire.

Now the Firestone Dealer can give you Oldfield Tires, at a price—the lowest price at which standard quality can be sold.

COURIER

Oversize, Low Price Tire

Firestone also makes and distributes direct to its dealers Courier Tires and Tubes. These tires are oversize, rugged and the protected sidewall ribs prevent rut wear. In the low-price field they have no equal.

Don't experiment with tires the manufacturer of which you do not know and whose greatest sales argument is a misleading advertised mileage guarantee.

The Firestone Gum-Dipped Tire—the tire supreme; Oldfield, the high-grade standard tire, and the oversize Courier Tire, are all fully guaranteed from any defects of material and workmanship and whose average mileage records are known and hold all world records. This guarantee is backed by the largest exclusive tire manufacturer in the world whose reputation is to give you the greatest value for your money.

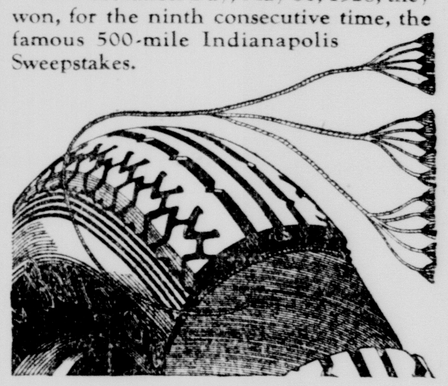
The Tire Supreme

Holds All World Records

Firestone Gum-Dipped Balloons absorb every road obstacle without sacrificing long mileage

Firestone Gum-Dipped Tires hold all world records for Speed, Safety, Comfort and Endurance. They made the fastest mile ever travelled on wheels—207.55 miles per hour. They have won every National Championship race since 1920.

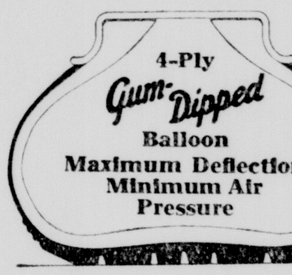
On Decoration Day, May 30, 1928, they won, for the ninth consecutive time, the famous 500-mile Indianapolis Sweepstakes.



A single cord of a Firestone Tire untwisted into 15 smaller cords, composed of millions of little fibers—all saturated with rubber

Dirt track and endurance records—transcontinental runs—passenger, bus, car-owner records—and taxi-cab mileages—are equally startling. Never before has a tire so thoroughly earned its title—"The Tire Supreme."

For Light and Medium Weight Cars



This tire is designed and engineered to the needs of the light and medium weight car. It is therefore extremely flexible, of limited ply construction, made unusually strong by the extra process of Gum-Dipping and uniformity in cure. It is generously over-size and will give you greater comfort, safety and economy than any tire in the world of heavier and more bulky construction. Do not decrease your speed, increase your gasoline consumption or wear out your tires prematurely by putting a heavier tire on your light or medium weight car.

For the Heavy Car

Firestone has also designed a special tire with extra plies of cord fabric and heavier and tougher tread, especially for heavy cars. Naturally, this tire requires additional air pressure, and while the carcass is Gum-Dipped and flexes uniformly under load, yet its degree of deflection is less because of its heavier carcass, thicker tread and necessary higher air pressure.

For Commercial Cars, Trucks and Buses

For motor vehicles of still greater weight and carrying capacities, the carcass is made still heavier, using from six to fourteen plies (depending on size) of cord fabric and a thick heavy tread. This tire is also Gum-Dipped by the special process and makes this tire more flexible and durable than any other tire in its class, yet it is engineered especially for commercial vehicles. This is the best tire that money can buy in its class, but if you want comfort, safety and economy of operation on passenger cars don't use this thick, heavy tire.

Pomona Grange Meets Wednesday

Session Takes Place In Liberty Grange Hall; Have Memorial

REV. HAVERFIELD NAMED CHAPLAIN

With almost 300 members in attendance, the regular meeting of the Lawrence County Pomona Grange took place Wednesday in the Liberty Grange hall. David F. Kyle, master of the grange, presided at all sessions.

Representatives from all the subordinate granges in the county were present, as well as visitors from the Butler, Beaver and Crawford county organizations.

The morning session was spent with routine business, during which time the Rev. Ross M. Haverfield was elected chaplain because the Rev. J. J. Gregory declined to serve on account of ill health. The installation of the chaplain was conducted by J. Audley Boak.

After a short business meeting in the afternoon, there was an hour's recess, following which the annual memorial service took place. The service was opened by the singing of the 23rd Psalm and a reading by a member of the Big Beaver grange. After a prayer by the Rev. Haverfield, members of each grange placed flowers on the altar in memoriam for the people from their granges who had died during the year. The Rev. F. C. Henderson then made a short address. Master Kyle placed flowers on the altar for the members of the national organization who had died during the past year. The ceremony was closed by the Lord's prayer and a benediction by the Rev. Haverfield.

W. D. Zinn, associate editor of the National Stockman and Farmer, considered to be one of the outstanding authorities on farm problems, then made a short address.

At eight o'clock in the evening the grange convened again. A literary program by the members of the various granges was given, and Mr. Zinn made another address on community betterment. In the concluding business session the grange went on record as indorsing the resolution recently passed by the ministers of New Castle regarding the operation of amusement parks on Sunday. The next meeting of the grange will take place the first Wednesday in September, announced David F. Kyle, the master.

Grating Gives Way Under Automobile

Officer Lockard answered the call early last evening to the Henry Hotel. The call was to the effect that traffic in Market Way was entirely blocked and could not be moved.

On his arrival there, the officer found that a Robins Furniture company truck was being loaded at the rear of Market Way entrance to the store and blocked approximately half the cartway of the alley.

A man driving a Chrysler car tried to pass through that part of the alley, which remained open and in doing so, his machine run over a grating of the coal hole into the Henry Hotel. The grating gave way and the car was thrown over against the side of the Henry Hotel, being somewhat damaged. The owners have been notified by the police of this dangerous condition.

This letter from Charlotte Brandeau, of Swansea, Mass., is worth reading: "I used Peterson's Ointment and soap for a very severe case of eczema. It was all over my body. Grand Jury Says New Court House Is Needed Here

Claimed That It is A Waste Of Money To Make Improvements on Old One

Further improvements on the Lawrence county court house would be a waste of money, according to presentments made by the grand jury yesterday afternoon.

The jury accordingly made the customary recommendation for a new court house. It was found, after inspection, that the offices are all badly crowded.

Recommendation was made that an assistant for the sheriff, to be on duty at night, be employed.

Ladies' rest room in the north jury room was also found to be necessary.

The grand jury acted on 62 bills presented by District Attorney J. Elder Bryan, of which 58 were found true bills and four were return "not true bills".

M. L. Raney, 109 West Madison avenue, according to the report made to the police Wednesday, was driving east on East Brook road near 1213 East Brook street, when his machine hit a boy by the name of Aveni. The little fellow was five years of age and the son of Joseph Aveni. The front bumper struck and knocked him to the ground. The boy got up himself and ran to his sister, who was standing at the side of the road. Mr. Raney took the boy to the office of a physician, where it was found that apparently his only injury was a bump on the forehead. Mr. Raney then took the boy to his home.

Seat Contests For Convention Being Settled

Difference In Southern Districts Being Settled By Committee On Credentials

NO SHIFT SEEN IN ESTIMATES

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, June 7.—Rapid progress was made by the Republican national committee in ploughing through the maze of contests that quadrennially come up from the South to plague the party at convention time. A hang-over contest from the seventh district of Georgia was settled speedily by agreement between L. H. Crawford and R. P. Hufstetler jointly to occupy the single seat allotted to the district.

In South Carolina there had been a threatened contest against the four Lowden delegates-at-large. The fight failed to materialize. A faction in South Carolina opposed to national committeeman "Tieless Joe" Tolbert and reputedly favorable to Hoover, filed notice of contest but withdrew it by letter. This reduced the total of contests before the committee to 69 and insured as well all of South Carolina's 11 votes for Lowden. This caused no shift in the pre-convention tables of strength, inasmuch as Lowden has been generally conceded to have South Carolina's delegates.

Republicans of the third district of Tennessee settled their differences today without appeal to the committee. Paul J. Kruesi of Chattanooga and Lee R. Sloan, the contestants, withdrew and permitted the seating of J. E. Adams of Copper Hill and Tom Crutchfield of Chattanooga. This left only one contest from Tennessee, in the tenth district, where the credentials of "Bob" Church, wealthy negro leader of Memphis, were challenged by Jim Quinn, a white man.

Beauty Winner In Jail Again

(International News Service)

MEDIA, Pa., June 7.—Mrs. Vivian McDowell Page, "Miss Mobile of 1926", was back in the Delaware county jail Wednesday awaiting action of the grand jury on charges of arson and larceny.

Free on $10,000 bail on the arson charge, Mrs. Page was arrested and held under $1,000 bail in Chester following the disappearance of $180 from the room of a man at the Colonial Hotel there, where she was staying. Then the man who put up $5,000 of the $10,000 bail for the beauty's freedom on the arson charge, withdrew the $5,000. Mrs. Page then was remanded to the county jail here.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

RAIN-BIRD PAYS FOR HIS CURIOSITY.

"I know a thing or two," twittered Mrs. Bobolink, "and the second I saw that man raise the net I guesed he was going to try to throw it over Rain-bird. I called to Rain-bird:

"'Fly, you are in danger. Make haste or you will be captured!'

'But the silly bird seemed sunstruck. Instead of heeding my warning he only flitted a short distance away and turned around again to stare. This time his curiosity cost him his liberty. Swissh! Down came the net.

"'Tick-ticky ticky,' cried Rain-bird and struggled to escape, but it was too late. The last I saw of him he was being carried away captive in the net he could so easily have eluded if he hadn't been so inquisitive."

"A Tom-Fool, indeed!" cried Peter. 'Rain-bird was almost as foolish as the Eagle who let his feet freeze to the ice. Rain-bird was captured because he was too curious and the Eagle met a sad fate because he was too greedy. Where did you say Rain-bird lived?'

"I didn't say,' laughed Mrs. Bobolink, "but he was a native of Jamaica, a land down south. There are lots of cuckoos down there but he was the only one I really knew, although I did speak to several other members of his family in passing.

"Rain bird was a stylish chap too—dressed so well. His coat was gray and yellow and trimmed with black and white. Too bad he had to be captured. But those things will happen to the wisest of us let alone a foolish fellow like he was."

"Now if Rain-bird had been only half as clever as Pedro Plant-Cutter such a thing could never have occurred' declared Mr. Bobolink at this point.

Of course Peter and the Rabbits were not going to let him get away with a remark like that without an explanation.

"Pedro Plant-Cutter! Whb is he?" questioned Peter eagerly.

"SHE KNOWS THE WAY TOO WELL NOT TO HAVE BEEN TO THE LETTUCE PATCH BEFORE"

"And do tell us about him" cried the two Rabbits.

And Bobolink, growing more interested in the tales of his travels with every one he told flew to a lone corn stalk to get a drink then hurried back to continue his chapter of adventures.

Do You Know What a Women of 30 Should Weigh?

It all depends on her height of course.

If she is five feet seven inches in height she should weigh according to the best authorities 142 pounds.

If she is 5 feet 5 inches her normal weight is 134 pounds.

If she is 5 feet 3 inches she should weigh 127 pounds.

It's dangerous to be always striving to grow thin—the Adirondack Mountains and health resorts everywhere are filled with health shattered women who will tell you that it doesn't pay to be too thin.

That is why so many thousands of underweight men and women are putting their faith in McCoy's Tablets.

McCoy takes all the risk—Read this ironclad guarantee. If after taking 4 sixty cent boxes of McCoy's Tablets or 2 One Dollar boxes any thin, underweight man or woman doesn't gain at least 5 pounds and feel completely satisfied with the marked improvement in health—your druggist is authorized to return the purchase price.

College Seniors Have Class Day

Cabaret "Take-off" Is Utilized As Novel Program For Annual Event

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, June 7.—Departing from the usual procedure, the senior class of Westminster College on Tuesday presented one of the most novel and unique class day exercises in the history of the school. The stage of the community house auditorium was made up into a cabaret which was a symbol of the class of 1928.

At the opening of the exercises Orvil Mirtz, as proprietor of the cabaret, and several other seniors as "tough" patrons, were on the stage. These seniors, who were dressed to create the desired atmosphere, were: Clare Swisher, Carol Clark, Leland Cooper, Dorothy Nevin, Harriett Jolley, Norah French and Elizabeth Glover. Orvil Mirtz gave the introduction to the exercises, explaining the symbolization of the stage picture.

Following this Halden William and Hazel Brush, who were society folks slumming, entered the cabaret and the former, upon learning that he and one of the patrons were students at the same college at one time, Halden Williams gave the history of the class by telling his old classmate what had happened. Following this Hazel Brush read out the will of the class, and after hearing these two dissertations Dorothy Nevin, class pessimist, gave her speech.

The final feature of the cabaret class day program was the distribution of gifts. The cabaret proprietor in asserting that he wished to reward his patrons (of the class of '28) asked his wife at the bar to give gifts to these people.

Consequently, Elizabeth Glover, class donor, gave out many amusing gifts to the members of the senior class. The final part of the class day program consisted of the presentation of the colors of the senior class to the freshman class. President McDowell of the seniors presented these colors to Paul Quinby, a representative of the freshman class.

Despite the unsettled weather conditions, a large crowd attended the senior performance. The senior arrangement committee for this show was Elizabeth Glover, Carol Clark and Hazel Brush.

Another good intelligence test is the ability to memorize good poetry—and never quote it.

You Need More Than A Smile

By Edna Wallace Hopper

It's pleasant to know that your glistening white teeth fascinate and allure. But we who make an earnest study of health and youth preservation demand more than cleanliness. The enamel and gums must be protected.

Edna Wallace Hopper as she looks today

To assure the greatest precaution against wearing away of precious enamel I have had to understand personally the effects of the various ingredients of the tooth paste I use, which is called Quindent, the "five-in-one" dentifrice.

I am convinced that it not only cleanses and polishes the teeth perfectly, but it purifies the breath and, above all, counteracts the ever-present acids. This last protection is due to one of its most valuable properties—milk of magnesia, which I used to use separately as a mouth wash before expert scientists had produced Quindent.

Quident is not a biting, sharp dentifrice. Its action is sure and mild. The taste is pleasant and I advise you to leave a slight coating of it on the gums and tongue which is effective for hours.

You can obtain Quindent at any toilet counter, 50 cents for a large tube.

Garfield's Quest Of Knowledge

JAMES GARFIELD'S MOTHER PERSUADED HIM TO GIVE UP HIS WORK ON THE CANAL AND RE-ENTER SCHOOL, AND IN 1849 HE ENTERED GRANGE ACADEMY AT CHESTER, OHIO. LIKE MOST FRONTIER BOYS, GARFIELD WAS POOR, BUT MANAGED TO PAY FOR HIS SCHOOLING BY WORKING AS A CARPENTER AFTER SCHOOL AND DURING THE SUMMER VACATION AS A FARM HAND.

IN 1851 HE BECAME A STUDENT AT HIRAM INSTITUTE. HE WAS AMBITIOUS TO GO TO COLLEGE AND BY STRICT ECONOMY FOR THREE YEARS SAVED $350 FOR FURTHER EDUCATION. IT IS SAID THAT AT ONE TIME GARFIELD PRACTICED LIVING ON THIRTY-ONE CENTS A WEEK.

IN 1854, HE ENTERED THE JUNIOR CLASS OF WILLIAMS COLLEGE, GRADUATING TWO YEARS LATER. HE RETURNED TO OHIO TO TEACH LATIN AND GREEK AT HIRAM, AND AT THE AGE OF TWENTY-SIX BECAME PRINCIPAL OF THAT INSTITUTION.

WHILE AT HIRAM INSTITUTE, GARFIELD STUDIED LAW WITH A FIRM OF CLEVELAND ATTORNEYS. IN 1859 HE WAS ADMITTED TO THE BAR AT COLUMBUS AND RESIGNED HIS POST AT HIRAM. HE SOON WON A REPUTATION AS A POLITICAL ORATOR, ARDENTLY ADVOCATING THE ABOLITION OF SLAVERY, AND WAS ELECTED TO THE STATE SENATE.

Pennant Chase In National League Is One Merry Scramble

New York Fans Seem To Think Giants Will Carry Through To Title

By DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service.

NEW YORK, June 7.—For some reason or maybe none at all, Broadway has decided that the New York Giants are going to win the National league pennant and is making its bets accordingly. In several of the uptown pool rooms today, the Giants were held at the rather short price of 2 to 1, where as one could get a half dollar extra for one's money provided it was riding on the Reds, Cubs or Cardinals. The Pirates were 3 to 1. There may be sense in these odds but not much.

Wall Street, for example, knows to the nickel just how much a bet should be worth and has rated the five admitted contenders in a dead heat somewhere in the neighborhood of 3 to 1, which is as it should be, considering the fact that the Reds, Cards, Giants and Cubs are separated by only three games and the Pirates are conceded to be better than they have looked to date. This point, in fact, is very well taken. They couldn't be worse.

No Team Impressive

The fact of the matter is that there isn't a stand-out club in the big five and, if the so-called sharpshooters are betting the Giants, they are doing so on a hunch. McGraw's abiding difficulty has been to get more than two pitchers who can go out there and finish what they started. The outfit has made its share of errors and Jackson, once said to be the "perfect shortstop," has blown himself to a most indifferent season so far. But pitching, or lack of it, is the Giants' halter, in the final analysis or in the first, for that matter. They say McGraw could have had Burwell, who finally landed with the Pirates from Indianapolis; it is true, in any case, that he made no effort to bid in Clarence Mitchell, who has remained in the league well past his time purely on his ability to harass the Giants. He relieved Alexander and helped to beat them again yesterday, so maybe McGraw is due to release another interview. The last one made him say that he was satisfied with the Giants' pitching.

Depends on Critz

However, there isn't a contender that hasn't left some question unanswered to date. With the Reds, the question is whether Critz, around whom the success of the outfit revolves, will be able to carry his pace through the warm months ahead. They say he is boiled down some twelve pounds under his normal weight already. You can blat about the hitting of Callaghan, Picinich and Purdy and the day to day effectiveness of Cincinnati pitching, but when you have spoken your little piece, the situation reverts to this fact: unless they can continue to reel off their remarkable run of double plays, via Critz, the Reds are just a ball club.

The Cards have been weakened so far at a point where everyone expected them to be strong. Alexander and Haines, who won some 42 games between them last year, have won only about half of their games and Sherdel also is having an ordinary season. Rhem and Reinhart have been carrying the club and the intellectuals claim Reinhart won't stand prosperity anyhow, the Cardinals look no better than anybody else in the race, which automatically prohibits a comparison with the Pirates. They simply have been shot to pieces with one thing and another, mostly both, but they have too much speed to run in the company they are keeping at present.

As for the Cubs, they seem to be facing the old question of balance. Any club looks great when it is winning and the Cubs looked even better than that when they were rushing through thirteen straight earlier in the year. Since then, however, they have dropped nine of their last fifteen, most of them on the road. The records seem to prove that the Cubs are not a good traveling club.

National League Players Staging Home Run Derby

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, June 7.—The only home run race this season that is close enough to be exciting is in the National League, where Del Bissonette, Hack Wilson, Sunny Jim Bottomley and Rogers Hornsby are staging a merry battle for circuit clouting honors. Bissonette, with a total of 10, is leading the pack today by one.

The Brooklyn first sacker drove in five runs yesterday as the Robins trimmed Cincinnati, 8 to 5, and now leads the league in that department, as well as in home runs. The Reds now enjoy a lead of only two games over the Cardinals and Giants, who are practically tied for second place.

Jack Hendricks, manager of the Porkville outfit, spent the afternoon wondering why he ever let Rube Bressler get away from him. The Rube led Brooklyn's attack with four hits in as many times at bat.

Mitchell Wins

Vic Aldridge of the Giants ran himself ragged in getting three base hits against the Cardinals and was yanked from the mound in the seventh. Then the Cards scored six runs off his successor, Faulkner, and went on to win by an 11 to 6 score. Old Clarence Mitchell, who pitched for St. Louis after Alexander was kayoed, won his first start for the Red Birds.

Pinch Hitted Cy Williams of the Phillies smacked a home run against the Cubs, but his mates couldn't help him and the Quakers lost, 5 to 3.

George Uhle, Cleveland mound ace, who used to be poison to the New York Yankees, was shelled off the landscape by the world's champions. With Herb Pennock holding the fort, the Yanks won in a romp, 8 to 3.

The Athletics lost to the Browns, 5 to 2, and now trail the Yanks by nine games. Sam Gray, former Mackman, chalked up his ninth victory. Ty Cobb collected three hits.

Rain cancelled all other games scheduled.

Union High Wins Baseball Crown From Plaingrove

Shiek Hurls Union High To 11 To 1 Victory In County Championship Game

UNION HAS FINE TEAM THIS YEAR

Union high school baseball team by a 11 to 1 victory over the Plaingrove high school team at the Scotland Lane field on Wednesday afternoon won the Class B Lawrence County Schools championship. The game was played in a drizzle of rain and on a wet soggy diamond.

Wylie Shiek on the knoll for the Unionites hurled brilliant baseball and held the heavy hitting Plaingrove outfit to three scattered hits. "Shiek has been the mainstay of the Union team this season" said Coach Burnham today.

Lost One Game.

The Plaingrove team won the eastern half of the county title and Union captured the western section title. Union defeated the following teams for the right to play Plaingrove in the championship affair; Shenango two games, 2 to 0 and 16 to 0; Bessemer two games, 8 to 3, 2 to 1, and were defeated by Bessemer 3 to 2; Mt. Jackson 22 to 0. Union totaled 63 runs to 8 for their opponents this season, which is a mighty fine record.

The Union high team by their victory yesterday afternoon over Plaingrove won the handsome silver baseball trophy donated by the Sporting Goods Department of the Cripps Hardware Company. F. J. McLaughlin, Cripps representative, was instrumental in the donation of the beautiful silver baseball figure, emblematic of the Lawrence County Class B Schools championship.

Here And There In Sports' Land

By ED. FRITZ

Homestead Grays and New Castle are scheduled to play Friday evening at Cascade park but unless J. Pluvius lets up, temporarily, at least there will not be much chance for the game. Yesterday the Grays clashed with the Beaver Falls O. and P. team and lost which makes their third defeat of the season. The New Castle club has a three day lay off and indications are the clubs will be silent this afternoon. Should rain cease today the grounds may dry out sufficiently for a tilt Friday evening.

The Pirates have been forced to loaf three days which shows that J. Pluv is no respector of leagues and between the rain drops comes the rumor that Manager Hornsby of the Braves would swap First Baseman Burrus for Catcher Gooch. Manager Bush said he had not received such an offer and wouldn't accept it if he had as Gooch is too valuable. Since the acquisition of Sisler, Burrus is considered good trading timber.

Earl Sand, long considered one of the greatest of jockeys may retire at the end of the 1928 turf season according to an eastern report. Sand is troubled by the weight question and believes that constant reducing is a menace to his health. There is a possibility however that should he forsake the American turf he may go to France and ride for Joe Widener who maintains a stable there.

Speaking in New York yesterday, Red Grange denied that the firm of Pyle and Grange had split. "I haven't heard anything about it' said the former Illinois football star. I am not under contract to Pyle but we are on good terms." Grange said he would probably make a couple of pictures after he reaches the Pacific coast.

Boxing shows are to be staged at Conneaut Lake this summer according to Tommy Maxwell, Erie, who writes, stating that the first show will be held June 20. Friday night at Erie, Maxwell will show Johnny Ryan against Chick Suggs. Tommy says that all of the New Castle boys who fought for him during the winter made good showings.

Among the new faces at the Jimmie Dime gymnasium here is Glenn Dinger of DuBois wsa was sent to this city by Jake Osborne who took an interest in the youngster. Dime is polishing the youngster who has shown a keen aptitude for fighting. He has won 12 fights and Jimmie said yesterday the kid is going to make good.

Kid Cangie and Eddie Weygant are also in the Dime stable now and Jimmie is ready to send Cangie against Freddy Fitzgerald, Billy Grimes or Freddie Mueller at the Jolly bowl. Weygant is in good condition and may step forth in a comeback bout against some good 126-pounder. Weygant kept himself in condition by boxing daily with Mickie Solomon, Young Minteer and other local boxers.

Colonel Jake Ruppert, owner of the New York Yankees has purchased the Jersey City International league club. The purchase price is reported to have been $200,000. Frank Donnelly will remain as president and William Donnelly secretary. Ed Burrows, business manager of the Yanks will act in the same capacity for Ruppert's new holdings.

Carpenters at the Jolly bowl commenced placing the supports and the fence is almost completed. It is not known when the arena will be entirely completed but it should not consume more than another week unless the rain continues to hamper the work. Promoter Bill Jolly hoped to hold two shows this month but it looks as though only one will be staged. The principals have not been selected.

EARL SANDE MAY ENTER RETIREMENT

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 7.—Earl Sande, America's premier jockey, says he will retire from the turf because the necessity of taking off weight has impaired his health. He may continue his riding career on French tracks, where jockeys ride at higher weights.

Ancient And Modern — By Feg Murray

The rapid approach of the Olympic games has caused quite a rush to the public library by various sports writers, all seeking information about the ancient Freek festivals which began in 776 B. C. and ended near the close of the third century A. D. Thus it is that this writer is able to tell an excitedly awaiting public that the Olympic games of 2,500 years ago were no more like a present-day international track and field meet than Ty Cobb is like a C. C. Pyle bunion.

Such events as the four-horse chariot race, the pancration (wrestling and boxing combined), sculpture and so forth were on the program when Pindar and Simonides were boys. Olympia, where the games were held, became the museum spot of the Hellenic world, and as time passed the athletes became higher and higher in social quality, while all the distinguished men of antiquity came as visitors. At first the contestants devoted very little time to training and were strictly amateurs. The Olympic victor was the recipient of preposterous honors on his return home, although the actual prize at the games was a simple wreath of wild olives bestowed with much religious ceremony.

But when he returned to his native hearth, he was driven through a breach made in the city wall, mounted in a chariot drawn by four white horses. Hymns composed by the greatest poets were sung in his honor, statues and columns were erected to him. Enormous cash rewards were bestowed on the champion and sometimes he was even given free subsistence for life. This naturally led to a change in athletic morals, and about the time of Plato, many athletes gave up all other occupations and became avowed professionals. Victories could be purchased for 3,000 drachmae, and sometimes a victorious athlete was bought outright by a city which wished to boast of him as one of its citizens.

FEG MURRAY SAYS

Little Richard writes in to know if, when the girls are finishing the 800-meter run at the Olympic games, their breath comes in short pants.

LATZO OPENS HIS TRAINING CAMP

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., June 7.—Pete Latzo, former welterweight champion, began training here Wednesday for his ten-round bout with Leo Lomski, of Aberdeen, Wash., in Brooklyn in a week. His sparring partners are Harry Fay and Eddie McMullen, light-heavyweights.

Levinsky Beats Emmet Rocco In Bout At Akron

Battling Levinsky, Veteran Of Ring, Outgenerals Ellwood City Fighter

BATTLE LASTS FULL 10 ROUNDS

(International News Service)

AKRON, O., June 7.—Battling Levinsky, Philadelphia, former light heavy-weight champion and veteran of nearly 500 ring battles today was victor over Emmet Rocco, Ellwood City, Pa., whom the Philadelphian easily defeated in a ten round bout here last night.

Rocco landed frequently on Levinsky's head in the early rounds but the battler gave Rocco a bad body beating in the late stanzas of the fight. Levinsky did not force himself to ward off Rocco's attack and hardly exerted himself to gain decision.

Eddie Walsh, Jr., Promising Hurler

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—Young Eddie Walsh, son of the famous former White Sox hurler, will continue to follow closely in his father's footsteps, it became known Wednesday with the announcement he will join the White Sox team upon his graduation from Notre Dame university this month. Walsh was scheduled to pitch in the Notre Dame-Villanova game here which was called off because of rain.

British Girl Golfer Is Coming To U.S. To Play In Tournaments

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 7.—Miss Enid Wilson, 18 year old English girl, who was strongly fancied to win the British women's open golf championship, plans to go to the United States to compete in the American women's championship, it was learned Wednesday.

In that event she is likely to be regarded as the "Betty Nuthall of English golf." Miss Wilson is of Amazonian proportions, standing 5 feet 11 inches and massively built with exceptionally broad shoulders. She drives a longer ball than the average man player, and, when in good form, plays an exceptionally good short game.

It was the greatest surprise of the British championship when the French girl, Mlle. Nanette De Blan beat Enid in the semi-final. The English girl had been leading up to that time and seemed to have the match in her hands. But, from the 10th to the 14th holes she turned scratchy, letting her temperament get the better of her.

One of the faults of her game is that she gets cross and irritable when her play is bad. She is invariably chaperoned by her father, a physician, but will not even allow him to approach the course when things are not going well.

In her spare moments Miss Wilson's hobby is rough carpentry.

Washington Girl Weds Bill Amos, Football Star

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Pa., June 7.—"Big Bill" Amos, one of the brightest stars that have shone in the athletic firmament of Washington-Jefferson college here, today started on a marital career. He was married here last night to Miss Dora Polan in a double wedding at the home of Samuel Polan a local merchalt. Miss Mare Polan, a sister of Amos' bride, was married to Ivan Forgie of Washington at the same time. The wedding took place just a few hours after Amos received his diploma at Wash-Jeff's commencement.

Amos was an all-American football star and a point-winner on the track team at W. J. for four years. He was considered one of the greatest fullbacks in Wash-Jeff's football history.

"It sounded like an all-star cast when they handed me the four leading cigarette brands to smoke in the blindfold test. But one of the four ran away with the show . . . for I picked OLD GOLD instantly. There's a mildness and a smoothness to OLD GOLD that makes it stand out in any company."

Three types of leaves grow on the tobacco plant . . . coarse top-leaves, irritating to the throat . . . withered ground-leaves, without taste or aroma . . . and the heart-leaves, rich in cool and fragrant smoking qualities. Only the heart-leaves are used in OLD GOLDS.

The test was conducted by the representative of a leading Eastern University and a disinterested witness selected by them. Emanuel-McTigue To Fight Tonight In New York City

Young Jewish Heavyweight Favored To Beat Veteran Mike McTigue

EMANUEL STANDS AS UNDEFEATED

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 7.—Armand Emanuel, young Jewish heavyweight, makes his metropolitan debut tonight against the venerable Michael Francis McTigue in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden. Emanuel comes out of the west labeled as the cleverest man of his weight developed on the Pacific slope since Jim Corbett. McTigue is old enough to be Armand's father but is still carrying on after a fashion.

With Emanuel the ring is only the means to an end. His other profession is law and no matter how far his pugilistic gestures may take him he will retire at thirty to seriously concentrate on his career as a barrister. Armand passed the bar examinations in California last fall and has already won several verdicts in court.

Emanuel Favored.

The return quarrel tonight is scheduled for ten rounds. Emanuel is a 6 to 5 favorite, not because he is a "hot tip" or anything like that but because McTigue, in his last two starts here, has appeared to be suffering from hardening of the arteries.

If old Mike is in shape and chooses to make one of those stands that featured his encounters with Paul Berlenbach and Jack Sharkey a year ago last winter, he may make Emanuel out an ordinary heavyweight.

However, the Jewish boy will have the advantage of youth, weight, height and reach. He will scale about 180 pounds against McTigue's 173.

Jack Dempsey pronounces Emanuel a fighter of rare ability. Dempsey has done quite a bit of sparring with the youngster and is said to have more than a rooting interest in his ring future.

Jim Corbett is another native son who thinks Emanuel is the best Jewish heavyweight since Joe Choyinski.

Emanuel has not been defeated in twenty-eight professional starts. He was national amateur heavyweight champion in 1926.

Where great performance is Master Indeed!

Its performance has centered on Hudson the most dramatic public interest ever extended any car. Thousands, riding daily, are carrying the story world-wide.

They tell us that they travel faster in city traffic, because of flashing getaway, swift, smooth acceleration and instantaneous control that easy steering and four-wheel braking give.

This extra range and activity of Hudson power, as everyone knows, are advantages exclusive to the Super-Six principle and to its companion invention on which patents recently were granted.

In every phase of performance there is effortless ease, from its smooth, swift getaway, to sustained high speed, and back to the soft instantaneous stopping action of its four-wheel brakes. Power is so smoothly delivered in all ranges of performance that you are scarcely conscious of it.

With the development and increased capacity of the Super-Six principle came also the creation of a chassis engineered in every detail to provide safely, continuously and economically for the speed, power and safety of the motor.

A thrill, never to be forgotten, is in store for you when you take your first ride in the new Hudson Super-Six.

Believe Murder Victim Is Hurled From Passing Auto

Pittsburgh Police Investigate Mystery Crime In Vicinity Of Coraopolis

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, June 7.—The body of a man believed to have been lured into an automobile, murdered and then thrown from the machine, was found today in a ditch at the side of the Stoops Ferry-Glen Willard road here.

A bullet hole was found in the head of the man and another in the neck.

The man, about 40 years of age, was fairly well-dressed. A lodge card found in a pocket of his clothing indicated that the body might be that of E. W. Swanson of San Juan, Porto Rico.

C. A. Shaffer, who found the body while he was on his way to work, notified Coraopolis police, who had the body removed to a funeral home there. It was later taken to the morgue.

County detectives investigating the case are of the opinion that the man's killers hurled him into the ditch from their automobile. A 38-caliber automatic revolver was found lying near the body. They said the man had been dead about six hours.

F. W. McLaughlin, who lives on the road where the body was found, told Coraopolis police that last night after he returned home about 11 o'clock, he heard a number of shots.

INSPECTION HELD OVER.

City councilmen did not visit East Brook road Wednesday where there is no sanitary sewer. Property owners have asked council to remedy a situation there, they say is a nuisance.

Friends Of Thaw Make An Appeal

Seek To Secure Removal Of Ban Against Landing In England

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 7.—Friends of Harry K. Thaw here endeavored today to persuade the British home office to permit him to leave the liner Aquitania, aboard which he is held in Southampton, and take a channel boat to Havre, France.

However, he will need a French visa to enter France and it was deemed unlikely that he would be granted that privilege after being banned from touching British soil by the British government.

Meanwhile, Thaw paced the decks of the liner gloomily. He had intended spending three days in London buying some clothes. From there he had wanted to go to the continent to visit haunts he had not seen in 23 years. Now he is faced with the bright prospect of having to return to America aboard the Aquitania when the ship sails Saturday.

E. H. Pendleton, who travelled with Thaw, announced his intention of appealing to the home office to cancel the ban. But as the British law gives the home secretary full power to refuse admittance to any alien without assigning a reason, there seemed little likelihood that he would succeed in having the slayer of Stanford White admitted.

May Enter France.

PARIS, June 7.—No attempt will be made to prevent Harry K. Thaw from entering France if his passport is properly visaed by English officials, officials of the foreign office stated here today.

One way to teach the Chinese the Golden Rule would be to treat them as we'd like to be treated.

Ferry Boat Drifts With Current When Rudder Unfastens

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 7.—Three hundred passengers became excited today when a ferry bound from Fort Lee, N. J., to the 125th street slip lost its rudder in midstream and whirled aimlessly away with the current. The craft was quickly carried downstream a mile and a half and rapidly was drifting into the heavier traffic of the lower river when a pair of tugs succeeded in throwing lines on to her and bringing her under control.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 7.—Hurried short covering and pool buying of the industrial stocks which figured in Wednesday's closing decline resulted in sharp rallies in prices at the beginning of trading today. Lack of confirmation of the latest "political scare" which had influenced some of the short selling in yesterday's market influenced prompt short covering of Radio, General Motors, American Can, etc., and it required a very short period for Radio to travel the distance between yesterday's closing at 191¾ to fractionally above 200. General Motors recovered about 4 points and American Can 3.

In spite of these vigorous recoveries the market as a whole displayed a little rallying power, and heaviness developed in the market leaders near the end of the first hour. On the eve of the political conventions, Wall street was generally of the opinion that "anything might happen" in the big party camps, and it is no secret that the leaders in the financial district are still hopeful of the drafting of Calvin Coolidge for the presidential race.

The rails and oils responded with slightly higher prices to the second consecutive million-car-week in freight loadings and the firming up of wholesale gasoline prices. Coppers were steady, though lacking the aggressiveness displayed in recent sessions. Warner Quinlan featured the specialities, moving forward under the impetus of persistent buying. Motors stocks started the day at a high range of prices, but gave ground as selling orders swept over the market.

Prohibitionists Reach Kansas For Convention

(International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, June 7.—Militant prohibitionists put into Kansas City today well in advance of the Republican National convention prepared to wage a vigorous fight for a bone-dry plank in the platform.

Oliver W. Stewart, president of the Flying Squadron Foundation of Indiana Prohibition organization, was among the arrivals. He declared both Republican and Democratic parties would have to satisfy the drys in their platforms.

British Publisher Has Never Read Book

(International News Service)

LONDON, June 7.—Although he confesses he has never read a book in his life, George Roberts, retired London biscuit manufacturer, has secured a controlling interest in the famous publishing firm of Methuen's for a sum said to be $1,500,000.

"I have bought the shares in Methuen's solely as an investment and matter of private interest," he told interviewers.

"I have never read a book. I have no time."

Marathon Dance Abruptly Closed

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Pa., June 7—Washington's marathon dance is a decided thing today—decidedly closed. The dance was halted at six p. m. yesterday by Robert E. Fee of Uniontown, promoter of the affair, and Louis Gessner, who operates the Washington Gardens, where the dance has been holding forth.

Decision to close the dance came after District Attorney Warren S. Burchinal threatened action on charges that the dance was being improperly conducted. Officers, delegated by Burchinal, were said to have investigated the dance.

The 12 couples who had survived nearly 65 hours of the marathon grind may receive nothing for their efforts, it was said.

Pimples Itched And Burned Badly Cuticura Healed

"My trouble began with a breaking out of pimples which caused disfigurement. My forehead and back were just covered with them. Some of the pimples festered and scaled over leaving my skin rough. They itched and burned so badly that I was constantly scratching, and scratching caused eruptions. My clothing aggravated the breaking out on my back, and I lost sleep on account of the irritation. The trouble lasted for two years.

"I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and purchased more. I got relief within a week and inside of six weeks my trouble was healed." (Signed) Miss E. Dunkelberger, 135 Liberty St., Newtown, Pa., July 11, 1927.

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle

Just why an automobile should choose a rainy morning to quit cold is one for the book, but it did, and of course far enough away from a garage. One minute it was steaming along singing a gasoline symphony and apparently had its heart in its work. The next a startled cough, a sigh, and the motor passed out.

No, it wasn't lack of gas, there was plenty of this valuable liquid in the tank, but it seems that there is a wire called a primary wire, that has something to do with the ignition. No wire no spark, no spark no push. And the wire broke.

But it might have been worse. It might have been late at night on a dark country road.

Sheridan avenue is now in civilization, at least part running from Highland to Mercer streets. The new concrete work is in use and the job is a good one. Edwin O'Meara Mullaly, he of the silver thatch and the silver tongue lives out on West Sheridan and Mull figures that while the cost is considerable, its worth it to be once more a resident of New Castle. For a long time West Sheridan has been cut off from New Castle by reason of a dirt street that got all soaked up in wet weather and made travel over it almost an impossibility. But all of that is out.

You probably got around to the commencement exercises Wednesday evening in the cathedral and if you did you saw an inspiring sight. The address of Dr. J. Linwood Eisenberg was well worth hearing and his choice as commencement speaker was a happy one.

And now that the regular school sessions are over, the summer session gets under way in the Benjamin Franklin Junior High school next Monday morning. And this will be considerable of a school at that, probably 850 in size.

PEOPLE OVER 40

People over 40 have to be careful of their blood pressure. It's at this age, due to our abnormal living habits, that our blood pressure begins to slip up on us. And high blood pressure shortens life—may cut it off suddenly.

Modern living puts too great a pressure upon the vital organs, especially the liver. The liver becoming weak and sluggish fails to cleanse the blood of the poisons formed in food waste. The whole system then becomes toxic, with stomach, kidneys, heart and blood vessels affected.

The liver occasionally needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as physicians agree, than ox gall. Ox gall is a remarkable natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning so essential to real health. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and a few bring a delightful change.

Free Test Take this ad to the druggist named below and he will give you a free sample of Dioxol tablets. Try them yourself. See the splendid, quick results. One trial of Dioxol and you will want a full package!

SOME OF THE FAILURES—

In life are calling the successes fools.
Of life are riding high priced cars and eating expensive food.
Are failures because they could not see their own responsibility.
Are widely advertised as successes, but it does not change the facts.
Could still be successes if they would return to the attack.
Will be rated as successes by God because they did their best.
Are failures because good intentions are no substitute for good work.

McGeorge Family Tendered Farewell

Wampum Presbyterian Church Is Scene Of An Interesting Social Event

(Special To The News)

WAMPUM, Pa., June 7.—The Presbyterian church was the scene last evening of a largely attended farewell party held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. McGeorge and family who leave next week for their new home in New Castle, where Mr. McGeorge will assume charge of his duties in connection with the Lawrence County Fair association.

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished with internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointments and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leonhardt found the remedy and called his prescription HEM-ROID. He tried it in 1000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 96 per cent, and now it is sold by druggists everywhere under a rigid money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-ROID from McKee's Kut Rate Store, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and will do the same for you, or costs you nothing.

Hall Returns From Union City Meeting
